Ball Clubs Protest Five Per Cent Tax As Discriminatory

New York Teams Point Out Other Cities Help Sport by Small Rental

New York, June 2 (AP) — New York's three major league baseball clubs today protested the city's proposed 5 per cent amusement tax as "discriminatory."

Main opposition had come previously from theatre owners.

The three clubs—the Yankees, Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers — sent to the city council a joint memorandum saying attendance at ball parks must be encouraged "if baseball is to survive in this city."

The statement noted that the new major league cities of Baltimore and Milwaukee "subsidize their teams by providing ball parks at a relatively small rental."

It said the New York clubs paid substantial real estate and gross receipt taxes and that "when they must meet the competition of municipally subsidized teams" they should not be singled out for a discriminatory tax.

Text of Memorandum

The memorandum, submitted by Francis S. Bensel of the law firm of Kelley, Drye, Newhall & Maginnes, said:

"The maintenance of a first rate major league team is an expensive and risky operation. Any further substantial decrease in attendance at our ball parks must inevitably interfere with the clubs' abilities to produce championship teams. It must also of necessity force reconsideration of their present expensive program of full assistance to community affairs."

The statement said the teams attract a great influx of visitors from whom business in the city and the city itself reap financial benefits.

It said the clubs admitted 900,000 youngsters free of charge in 1953 and that the city would be forced to go to great expense to provide recreational activities of comparable quality.

Permanent Plan of Financing Is to Be Made Later

State Comptroller J. Raymond McGovern agreed to permit the use of money the State Bridge Authority now has on hand to go ahead with construction of the Kingston-Rhinebeck bridge.

Announcement came following a meeting of members of the authority and the comptroller in Albany yesterday afternoon.

It was explained that permanent financing would be set up later.

From Surplus Funds

McGovern said he had agreed to the proposal in behalf of the bondholders, the New York State Employes Retirement System. These "surplus funds" would amount to approximately three million dollars.

The authority has surplus funds of approximately four million dollars from the operations of the mid-Hudson Bridge, the Rip Van Winkle Bridge, the Bear Mountain and the Kingston-Rhinecliff Ferry, McGovern reported.

He said the authority still owed the bondholders about five million dollars, but could not use its surplus funds to pay off the bonds until they fall due over the next six years.

No Interest Required

By using a portion of the cash on hand for a new bridge, the authority will avoid paying interest that would be required if it borrowed the money.

Permission of the bondholders was required of all the authority's funds are pledged to repayment of its obligations.

Robert Hoe of Poughkeepsie, chairman of the authority, said today the authority was going ahead with the letting of contracts for construction of the Kingston-Rhinebeck Bridge "subject to the approval of the State Board of Public Works." No actual construction will commence, however, until the bids are approved.

Bid is $4,495,477

On May 5 the authority voted approval of a contract with Merritt-Chapman-Scott of 260 Madison avenue, New York, low bidder on the sub-structure of the bridge. The low bid was $4,495,477, which was $1,071,523 under the $5,567,000 state estimate for the job which calls for the building of piers and abutments.

Work on the western approach to the bridge is expected to be completed early this summer and work on the eastern approach is progressing toward completion probably by fall.

Tito in Athens

Athens, Greece, June 2 (AP) — Yugoslav President Tito arrived in Athens today for a five-day visit expected to join Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey in full military alliance.

Jay LeFevre Is Appointed to Bridge Post

JAY LeFEVRE

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today appointed former Congressman Jay LeFevre of New Paltz, as a member of the New York State Bridge Authority, on recommendation of State Senator Arthur H. Wicks of this city, chairman of the Ulster County Republican Central Committee.

He fills a vacancy caused by the death May 10 of James F. Loughran of Kingston who was chairman of the authority. LeFevre's term will run to February 1, 1955. Robert Hoe of Poughkeepsie succeeded Loughran as chairman.

No Salaries Paid

Members of the five-member authority receive no salaries but are repaid for their expenses.

The authority controls and operates the Mid-Hudson bridge at Poughkeepsie, the Rip Van Winkle bridge at Catskill, the Bear Mountain bridge and the Kingston-Rhinecliff ferry.

LeFevre is 60 years old, having been born in New Paltz September 6, 1893. He received his education at Lawrenceville Academy and Dartmouth College.

He is president of A. P. LeFevre and Son, a coal lumber and feed company, a partner in the Clintondale Supply Company, a director of the Huguenot National Bank and a vice-president of the New Paltz Savings Bank.

Elected to Congress

In 1942 he, a Republican, was elected a member of the House of Representatives from the 27th New York District to serve in the 78th Congress. He was reelected to serve in three succeeding Congresses as representative of the 30th New York District. He is also

City to Get Chambers' Deed At Saturday Ceremony, 2:30

The Chambers' Deed will be presented to the city of Kingston as a gift of her citizens during ceremonies at the Senate House Museum on Saturday at 2:30 p. m., the 302nd anniversary of the signing of the historic document.

Brief addresses will be given by Dr. Albert Corey, state historian, and Miss Mary Cunningham, librarian of the New York State Historical Association.

Mayor Frederick H. Stang will make the presentation, on behalf of the citizens of Kingston, to Mrs. E. Crane Chadbourne, president of the board of trustees of the Senate House Association. The deed will be on permanent loan to the Senate House Museum, where it will be on public exhibition.

Certificates of appreciation to the school children of Kingston will be made by Harry Rigby, Jr., of the citizens committee that spearheaded the drive to purchase the deed. Each public school and St. Mary's Parochial School, whose pupils contributed toward a large part of the purchase price, will send a representative pupil to receive the certificates.

Mrs. G. V. D. Hutton, who conceived the idea of purchasing the deed and who inspired the public subscription, will introduce the participants in the program. She was chairman of the citizens' committee, on which also served

Girl Found Stabbed in Home Hall

Knifed in Chest Similar to Marion Brown, Beaten Over Head by Assailant

New York, June 2 (AP)—A 14-year-old girl was found critically stabbed and beaten in an upper east side hallway this morning, in grim parallel to the unsolved Marion E. Brown slaying less than two months ago.

Surgery was ordered to save her life.

Today's victim was Dorothy Westwater, described by neighbors as a beautiful, "extremely quiet" girl, nicknamed "Sugar."

Her head was cruelly battered with a blunt instrument and she had been stabbed in the chest.

Her clothing was torn and in disarray. Her school books were found nearby. Apparently she had been on her way to school.

Bellevue doctors rushed her to the emergency room for an operation.

Police said young Dorothy was attacked as she stepped out of her apartment in an old tenement at 435 E. 66th street. They believed an effort had been made to rape her.

Found by Neighbor

She was found by a neighbor, crumpled in a pool of blood behind a stairway.

The body of the Brown girl, a 17-year-old waitress, was found in a hallway at 334 E. 65th St., where she lived, on April 7 last. The address is a block west and a block south of the Westwater address. She had been stabbed in the back.

Police said Dorothy attended a nearby parochial school.

She must have been assaulted within seconds after she closed the apartment door. Her father, James, had already gone to work.

One policeman said one of Dorothy's fingers was almost severed. He said she fought bravely to save herself.

Young Girl Is Beaten

New York, June 2 (AP) — A 14-year-old girl, her head cruelly battered, was found nude and unconscious in an upper east side hallway this morning. There was a grim parallel between today's case and the unsolved fatal stabbing of Marion E. Brown, 17, in another hallway two blocks away less than two months ago. Today's victim was identified by police as Dorothy Westwater. She was crumpled behind a stairway at 435 E. 66th street, where she lived. Bellevue Hospital described her as in serious condition. She had been beaten with a blunt instrument.

Opinion Is Refused by Eisenhower

Repeats His Admiration of Oppenheimer Who Is Barred From U. S. Atomic Files

Washington, June 2 (AP)—President Eisenhower refused today to voice his opinion of a security board's split decision barring Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer from the nations secret atomic files. The President said the case is still going through a quasi-judicial process.

The President reiterated at a news conference that he has great admiration for the physicists' past achievements.

The three members of a special Atomic Energy Commission security board unanimously found Oppenheimer to be a loyal citizen but decided, 2-1, that the famed physicist is not a good security risk and recommended that he continue to be barred from using secret government files for nuclear research.

Appeal for Reversal

Oppenheimer's lawyers, who announced the decision of the AEC board yesterday, appealed to the commission for a reversal of the decision.

Eisenhower told questioners who sought his view on the decision that the case is still going through a quasi-judicial process and until the appeal has been finally settled, there would be no point in a White House expression of opinion.

Oppenheimer himself elected not to comment on the board action. The 50-year-old physicist now heads the institute for advanced study at Princeton, N. J. His secretary said Oppenheimer felt the next move in the case was up to the AEC.

Amazed at Findings

But the scientist's lawyers said in a letter to the AEC that they were amazed at the findings. They questioned how the board could uphold Oppenheimer's "loyalty and discretion" and still deny him access to the government's nuclear secrets.

As disclosed yesterday by Oppenheimer's attorneys, the special board ruled 2-1 that the noted physicist and atomic pioneer had contributed to delaying a "concerted" start on hydrogen bomb development and had associated with Communists for years.

In a minority opinion, Dr. Ward V. Evans, chemistry professor at Loyola University of Chicago, said of Oppenheimer:

Didn't Hinder Work

"He did not hinder development of the H-bomb and there was absolutely nothing in the testimony to show that he did. . ."

The Oppenheimer attorneys, headed by Lloyd K. Garrison, said in a letter to AEC General K. D.

U. S. Starts Withdrawing Air Personnel From Indochina

Washington, June 2 (AP) — The United States has started to withdraw some 200 air force technicians rushed to Indochina to help maintain French war planes nearly three months ago.

The Defense Department, however, is reported considering allowing some American servicemen to volunteer to assist French ground crews in servicing planes blasting away at Communist-led rebel forces near Hanoi.

Diplomatic officials who reported this today said the evacuation of American air force personnel in no way should be regarded as a lessening of American interest in the future of Red-threatened Indochina.

The withdrawal, they emphasized, is being carried out in accordance with pledges to Congress that the 200 technicians sent to Indochina last March would be pulled out by June 12 after a stay of approximately 90 days.

These officials said some 47 American B26 fighter bombers, loaned to the French air force about the same time, will be kept in Indochina to bolster air assaults against advancing Communist armies, especially in the critical delta area.

Aldermen Also Take Up the Removal of War Tablets Wrecked by Weather

To Meet June 8

Recess Is Taken on Pay for Claims, Money for Sewer Drain

Proposals for legislation to change the city's taxi ordinance, to require water savers on local air conditioning equipment, and allow use of "extruded metal" on fire escapes were made at last night's Common Council meeting.

Another proposal would require repair or removal of "weather-beaten" war memorials in the various wards, and the aldermen were asked to consider proposed settlement of two important claims against the city. Three lesser claims were read and referred to Corporation Counsel James J. Abernethy.

The Council recessed until June 8 to consider settlement of the claims and the payment of $7,965.38 for the covering of an open sewer drain in the area of the Wilbur avenue dump.

Letter on Claims

Abernethy said in a letter to the council that during the May term of Supreme Court two claims against the city came up for trial.

One was that of Sarah K. and James Murdock in the sum of $12,500 for injuries suffered by Sarah K. Murdock when she tripped over a defective sidewalk on John street and suffered multiple fractures of an ankle, and the other, for $75,000 was by Shelia M. Carey, who suffered a compound fracture of a vertebrae when a toboggan on which she was coasting struck a mound of macadam at Hasbrouck Park.

The Murdock mishap dates back to Sept. 2, 1951, and the other to Dec. 23, 1951. The settlement sum in the Carey case would be $10,000 and the other $5,000.

Sees Sustained Verdict

The Murdock mishap, said the corporation counsel, happened two weeks before the city adopted its "written notice" ordinance. His examination of the facts, he said indicated that the city had been given proper notice and he felt there was a "strong possibility of a sustained verdict being given against the city if the case went to trial.

The letter said Abernethy had negotiated for a settlement for $1,500 subject to council approval. The injured claimant, he noted, wore a cast for five weeks and was unable to work for 89 days.

At the time of the mishap in which Shelia M. Carey was injured, the letter said, the park was covered by a liability insurance of $5,000. The insurance company, represented by Cashin and Ewig, he said, was willing to

McCarthy Insists Flanders Return

Senate to Receive Social Security Plan for Voting

May Be in for Changes on Benefits; House Passes Measure by 355 to 8

Washington, June 2 (AP) — Cleared overwhelmingly by the House, a bill wrapping up most of President Eisenhower's program for broadening the Social Security System headed today for the Senate where it may be in for some tailoring.

The House passed the bill yesterday by a 355-8 rollcall vote and in just the form recommended by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Sen. Millikin (R.-Colo.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee which now gets to handle the bill, said the House measure appeared to be "generally acceptable."

Want Larger Benefits

But some senators reportedly want to provide larger benefits and to widen to $6,000 the annual wage base on which social security taxes are levied. The base is now $3,600. Under the House bill it would be increased to $4,200.

There also is said to be Senate sentiment for direct payments to eligible workers who become disabled. These workers now get nothing before retirement.

And strong sentiment is reported for inclusion of physicians, many of whom were understood to have written to their congressmen urging such action despite the American Medical Association's stand against social security coverage for doctors.

General Picture

In general, the House-passed legislation would:

1. Blanket about 9,700,000 more persons into the Social Security System. Some of these would have a choice of coming in or staying out.

2. Increase the annual wage

Asks He Repeat Red Aid Blast; Ike Refuses Answer

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) said today he will "insist" Sen. Flanders (R.-T) be called to repeat under oath at the McCarthy-Army hearings his assertions that McCarthy is "dividing the country" and helping the Communists.

Flanders said he would appear if called but could add nothing to the speech he made in the Senate yesterday criticizing the Wisconsin senator.

With Roy M. Cohn recalled to resume his testimony at this 25th day of the televised hearings (9 a. m. EST), there was no indication that the Senate Investigations subcommittee would acede to McCarthy's demand for Flanders to take the witness chair.

Wants Real Story

Flanders told his colleagues yesterday the subcommittee has not yet dug into the "real heart of the mystery" of McCarthy's row with army officials. But he told newsmen later there would be "no point whatever" in his testifying.

The subcommittee is looking into charges by army officials that McCarthy and Cohn exerted improper pressure in attempts to get favored army treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, a former subcommittee consultant.

McCarthy and Cohn in turn have charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams with trying to use Schine as a "hostage" to head off the committee's hunt for alleged communism in the Army. A McCarthy spokesman said Schine may be the next witness called for their side.

No New Information

Announcement was made of the cook book offer in a full-page advertisement in the May 13th issue of The Freeman during the observance of Betty Crocker food festival week. There are 73 of these cook books left for distribution. Regularly priced at $3.50, they may be purchased for $2 at The Freeman offices. An O-Cel-O sponge is given free with the cook book.

Hard to Get Yanks for Second Battle of Brice's Crossroads

Brice's Crossroads, Miss., June 2 (AP)—The rebels are getting ready to whip the Yankees again but no one wants to be Yankees, especially beaten ones.

Mississippians just naturally don't like blue.

A new type enlistment was devised to fill the Union ranks for the second battle of Brice's Crossroads Sunday, 90 years afer Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest routed a Union force of superior numbers.

Volunteers for the battle re-enactment have no choice whether they would look better in blue or grey. They just enlist.

"Then we assign them to one of the armies," commented Claude Gentry, author of a book about the Civil War battle and a sponsor of the re-enactment. "You can't find anyone who wants to enlist as a Yankee.

"The ones that can run the fastest will be the Yankees," Gentry chuckled, recalling how Union forces were routed and fled back to Memphis, Tenn., in 1864.

A practice battle was scheduled for today to whet the rebels' appetite and give the southern "Yankees" a rehearsal in backward movement.

An enlistment booth is signing up soldiers in the Baldwyn Post Office (federal, that is). "Enlistments are coming in pretty good," Gentry said. He predicted 200

To Meet June 8

Recess Is Taken on Pay for Claims, Money for Sewer Drain

Proposals for legislation to change the city's taxi ordinance, to require water savers on local air conditioning equipment, and allow use of "extruded metal" on fire escapes were made at last night's Common Council meeting.

Another proposal would require repair or removal of "weather-beaten" war memorials in the various wards, and the aldermen were asked to consider proposed settlement of two important claims against the city. Three lesser claims were read and referred to Corporation Counsel James J. Abernethy.

The Council recessed until June 8 to consider settlement of the claims and the payment of $7,965.38 for the covering of an open sewer drain in the area of the Wilbur avenue dump.

Letter on Claims

Abernethy said in a letter to the council that during the May term of Supreme Court two claims against the city came up for trial.

One was that of Sarah K. and James Murdock in the sum of $12,500 for injuries suffered by Sarah K. Murdock when she tripped over a defective sidewalk on John street and suffered multiple fractures of an ankle, and the other, for $75,000 was by Shelia M. Carey, who suffered a compound fracture of a vertebrae when a toboggan on which she was coasting struck a mound of macadam at Hasbrouck Park.

The Murdock mishap dates back to Sept. 2, 1951, and the other to Dec. 23, 1951. The settlement sum in the Carey case would be $10,000 and the other $5,000.

Sees Sustained Verdict

The Murdock mishap, said the corporation counsel, happened two weeks before the city adopted its "written notice" ordinance. His examination of the facts, he said indicated that the city had been given proper notice and he felt there was a "strong possibility of a sustained verdict being given against the city if the case went to trial.

The letter said Abernethy had negotiated for a settlement for $1,500 subject to council approval. The injured claimant, he noted, wore a cast for five weeks and was unable to work for 89 days.

At the time of the mishap in which Shelia M. Carey was injured, the letter said, the park was covered by a liability insurance of $5,000. The insurance company, represented by Cashin and Ewig, he said, was willing to

McCarthy Insists Flanders Return

Senate to Receive Social Security Plan for Voting

May Be in for Changes on Benefits; House Passes Measure by 355 to 8

Washington, June 2 (AP) — Cleared overwhelmingly by the House, a bill wrapping up most of President Eisenhower's program for broadening the Social Security System headed today for the Senate where it may be in for some tailoring.

The House passed the bill yesterday by a 355-8 rollcall vote and in just the form recommended by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Sen. Millikin (R.-Colo.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee which now gets to handle the bill, said the House measure appeared to be "generally acceptable."

Want Larger Benefits

But some senators reportedly want to provide larger benefits and to widen to $6,000 the annual wage base on which social security taxes are levied. The base is now $3,600. Under the House bill it would be increased to $4,200.

There also is said to be Senate sentiment for direct payments to eligible workers who become disabled. These workers now get nothing before retirement.

And strong sentiment is reported for inclusion of physicians, many of whom were understood to have written to their congressmen urging such action despite the American Medical Association's stand against social security coverage for doctors.

General Picture

In general, the House-passed legislation would:

1. Blanket about 9,700,000 more persons into the Social Security System. Some of these would have a choice of coming in or staying out.

2. Increase the annual wage

Asks He Repeat Red Aid Blast; Ike Refuses Answer

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) said today he will "insist" Sen. Flanders (R.-T) be called to repeat under oath at the McCarthy-Army hearings his assertions that McCarthy is "dividing the country" and helping the Communists.

Flanders said he would appear if called but could add nothing to the speech he made in the Senate yesterday criticizing the Wisconsin senator.

With Roy M. Cohn recalled to resume his testimony at this 25th day of the televised hearings (9 a. m. EST), there was no indication that the Senate Investigations subcommittee would acede to McCarthy's demand for Flanders to take the witness chair.

Wants Real Story

Flanders told his colleagues yesterday the subcommittee has not yet dug into the "real heart of the mystery" of McCarthy's row with army officials. But he told newsmen later there would be "no point whatever" in his testifying.

The subcommittee is looking into charges by army officials that McCarthy and Cohn exerted improper pressure in attempts to get favored army treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, a former subcommittee consultant.

McCarthy and Cohn in turn have charged Secretary of the Army Stevens and Army Counselor John G. Adams with trying to use Schine as a "hostage" to head off the committee's hunt for alleged communism in the Army. A McCarthy spokesman said Schine may be the next witness called for their side.

No New Information

Flanders, who suggested to the Senate that the inquiry group should probe the "relationship"

U. S. Starts Withdrawing Air Personnel From Indochina

Washington, June 2 (AP) — The United States has started to withdraw some 200 air force technicians rushed to Indochina to help maintain French war planes nearly three months ago.

The Defense Department, however, is reported considering allowing some American servicemen to volunteer to assist French ground crews in servicing planes blasting away at Communist-led rebel forces near Hanoi.

Diplomatic officials who reported this today said the evacuation of American air force personnel in no way should be regarded as a lessening of American interest in the future of Red-threatened Indochina.

The withdrawal, they emphasized, is being carried out in accordance with pledges to Congress that the 200 technicians sent to Indochina last March would be pulled out by June 12 after a stay of approximately 90 days.

These officials said some 47 American B26 fighter bombers, loaned to the French air force about the same time, will be kept in Indochina to bolster air assaults against advancing Communist armies, especially in the critical delta area.

Athens, Greece, June 2 (AP) — Yugoslav President Tito arrived in Athens today for a five-day visit expected to join Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey in full military alliance.

Firemen Assist in Cerebral Palsy Drive

Firemen at the Central Fire Station fold letters for distribution in the local cerebral palsy drive. L to r, John Haber, Walter Miller, Daniel Noble, Walter Madajewski, Richard Weeks. Standing, Clayton Stalter. According to Joseph Kelly, city chairman, the letter will be mailed this week. Kelly said he hoped everyone would be as generous as possible and that whatever was given would be appreciated. A return envelope is enclosed for the convenience of contributors. (Freeman photo)

U.S. Horse Winner Of 175th Epsom Run

Epsom, England, June 2 (AP)—Never Say Die owned by Robert Sterling Clark of Upperville, Va., won the 175th running of the Epsom Derby today.

There was a photo for second place between Darius and Arabian Night.

Never Say Die's dam, Singing Grass, was sent to England to be bred by Nasrullah, but the colt was foaled in the United States.

The American colt was a 33-1 outsider. Darius was 7-1 and Arabian Night, 33-1.

Betty Crocker's famous picture cook book, which contains 2,161 recipes, dozens of color photos and 633 "how-to-do-it" pictures, are available at the main office of The Freeman Publishing Company, Freeman Square and at The Freeman branch office, 235-237 Fair street.

Announcement was made of the cook book offer in a full-page advertisement in the May 13th issue of The Freeman during the observance of Betty Crocker food festival week. There are 73 of these cook books left for distribution. Regularly priced at $3.50, they may be purchased for $2 at The Freeman offices. An O-Cel-O sponge is given free with the cook book.

City to Get Chambers' Deed At Saturday Ceremony, 2:30

The Chambers' Deed will be presented to the city of Kingston as a gift of her citizens during ceremonies at the Senate House Museum on Saturday at 2:30 p. m., the 302nd anniversary of the signing of the historic document.

Brief addresses will be given by Dr. Albert Corey, state historian, and Miss Mary Cunningham, librarian of the New York State Historical Association.

Mayor Frederick H. Stang will make the presentation, on behalf of the citizens of Kingston, to Mrs. E. Crane Chadbourne, president of the board of trustees of the Senate House Association. The deed will be on permanent loan to the Senate House Museum, where it will be on public exhibition.

Certificates of appreciation to the school children of Kingston will be made by Harry Rigby, Jr., of the citizens committee that spearheaded the drive to purchase the deed. Each public school and St. Mary's Parochial School, whose pupils contributed toward a large part of the purchase price, will send a representative pupil to receive the certificates.

Mrs. G. V. D. Hutton, who conceived the idea of purchasing the deed and who inspired the public subscription, will introduce the participants in the program. She was chairman of the citizens' committee, on which also served

Brice's Crossroads, Miss., June 2 (AP)—The rebels are getting ready to whip the Yankees again but no one wants to be Yankees, especially beaten ones.

Mississippians just naturally don't like blue.

A new type enlistment was devised to fill the Union ranks for the second battle of Brice's Crossroads Sunday, 90 years afer Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest routed a Union force of superior numbers.

Volunteers for the battle re-enactment have no choice whether they would look better in blue or grey. They just enlist.

"Then we assign them to one of the armies," commented Claude Gentry, author of a book about the Civil War battle and a sponsor of the re-enactment. "You can't find anyone who wants to enlist as a Yankee.

"The ones that can run the fastest will be the Yankees," Gentry chuckled, recalling how Union forces were routed and fled back to Memphis, Tenn., in 1864.

A practice battle was scheduled for today to whet the rebels' appetite and give the southern "Yankees" a rehearsal in backward movement.

An enlistment booth is signing up soldiers in the Baldwyn Post Office (federal, that is). "Enlistments are coming in pretty good," Gentry said. He predicted 200

SUPREME COURT LIMIT

Since the time of President U. S. Grant, the number of Supreme Court justices has been fixed at nine. But a lot of lawmakers have never forgotten that the late Franklin D. Roosevelt tried in 1937 to increase the total to 15.

That memory lies behind the present proposal to amend the Constitution to fix the limit at nine.

The plan, sponsored by Senator John Marshall Butler of Maryland, already has been approved by the Senate and must now win adoption by a two-thirds margin in the House before submission to the state legislatures.

The Constitution mentions no set number of justices. It was left to Congress to determine that. Senator Hennings, Missouri Democrat, thinks it wrong to "clutter" the Constitution with a specific figure which might some day have to be changed, if, for example, the Court takes on a greater work load.

On the other hand, there seems sound reason for protecting the Court's structure against the ebb and flow of political whim. As it stands, the caprice of either Congress alone or the Executive in company with a willing Congress can alter markedly the make-up of the tribunal.

The situation was saved in 1937 only because Mr. Roosevelt's packing plan aroused stiff opposition among both Democrats and Republicans on Capitol Hill. The story might be different another time.

To be sure, nine is not a sacred number. But it has proved practicable in terms of present-day Supreme Court requirements. The figure is not so low as to impose an impossible burden of cases upon the justices.

Nor is it so high as to make the Court more of an assembly, in which necessary exchanges of judicial views would become an unwieldly process.

Thus, if the Supreme Court is to be reasonably insulated from the normal political tides, the present amendment would appear to have some validity. There is nothing hard and fast about a figure placed in the Constitution.

It can be changed in the same way it can be originally fixed. Speedy action is not of the essence where the Court is concerned.

Hennings had a stronger point, however, when he complained of the slipshod fashion the Senate approved the Butler amendment. After one day of hearings, the Judiciary Committee reported the measure favorably. The next day, following the briefest debate (in which only two senators spoke in full-dress style), the proposal won a 58 to 19 endorsement.

That is hardly the manner a responsible body ought to show in seeking to modify the basic law of the land. Since the "greatest deliberative body in the world" chose not to deliberate, it is up to the House to remind the senators what they are supposed to be doing on Capitol Hill.

Full discussion is in order on even the most meritorious change in the Constitution.

Judges in New York ruled that a woman does not have to be accurate when she gives her age in court. Some we know are not only inaccurate but are not even approximate.

NO UNIFICATION

At Geneva there have been conferences concerned with the unification of Korea. It seems unlikely that these conferences will lead to any practical results. The Republic of Korea has proposed that free elections be held under the supervision of the United Nations; the Korean and Chinese Reds take the position that UN supervision would be unacceptable and propose instead a neutral commission.

The kind of "neutral" commission the Reds would agree to has been set up in the past. They have never accomplished anything for they have always had members picked by the Reds as part of the commission and this allowed the Reds to veto anything which did not meet their approval.

Korea should be unified. It does not make sense to have a division among people who speak the same language and who have so many common problems and traditions. But it appears that only unification along Red lines is possible as long as the Communists stubbornly insist on putting stumbling blocks in the way of every effort to achieve unification.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE BRITISH ARE LEARNING

The British are beginning to learn that the sole purpose of the Geneva Conference, from the Soviet standpoint, has been to create a climate favorable for splitting Great Britain from the United States.

While Geneva goes on meeting and speaking, the conquest of Indichina continues and a well-timed diversion is established in Guatemala. The Soviet timetable of World disorder and world conquest moves apace, but should the British stand firmly with the United States on the organization of a Pacific NATO, the whole atmosphere could change.

The Asiatics have come so to believe in the inevitability of Russian successes that they assumed that the split between the United States and Great Britain was inevitable. Every defection, every misunderstanding, every speech on the subject in the British Parliament has been played up as indicative of the trend. The Asiatics also assumed that public opinion in the United States would not tolerate the United States going alone in Indochina or anywhere else in Asia.

The test of American strength would be whether the countries in Asia with which we have security treaties would stand by us or by Great Britain should a split come. John Foster Dulles himself described the importance of this group of nations:

"My recollection of this effort goes back to 1951, when I negotiated treaties with the Philippines and Australia and New Zealand. These treaties recognize that that area is one of vital importance to the United States. And these treaties also recognize, and were cited, that they were only a beginning—only initial steps, toward the development of a more comprehensive system of security in the Pacific area."

To accommodate British opinion, Formosa has been excluded from this group. Pakistan has a separate arrangement with the United States. Japan and the Republic of Korea must be included. But the heart of the problem was and is, what would Great Britain do? And the formal position of Great Britain has been that Geneva must be completed before the British would do anything further about the Pacific.

It would seem that Molotov and Chou En-lai overplayed their hand. Geneva could go on forever, a Panmunjom style endless talk, while the Soviet Universal State conquered Indochina and moved on to Thailand. This obviously is as intolerable a situation for the British as it is for the United States. How long can Anthony Eden listen to the nerve-wracking, insulting speeches delivered at Geneva by Molotov, Chou and the other Soviet representatives?

It is in this asmosphere that the British are having another look at Geneva. They have not experienced a Chinese truce conference such as we experienced at Panmunjom. In his book, "From the Danube to the Yalu," General Mark Clark describes what such a conference can become:

"The Communists did not want to give up the propaganda platform at Panmunjom unless they had to. There were too many things they could say and do there to help their cause everywhere. . . .

"Vituperative lies and distortions flowed in great abundance from the nimble tongue of Nam Il who had the ability to voice the most blatant falsehoods while keeping a straight face. Among the propaganda charges he hurled across the conference table were the flat declarations that America had 'press ganged' Great Britain, France and other nations into fighting against communism in Korea, and that the United States wanted all Korea as a colony from which to invade China and start World War III. The mere fact that America, Britain and France sent troops thousands of miles to fight in Korea, he said, proved that America and the United Nations were the aggressor."

It is even so at Geneva, but in the Swiss city the goal is not only to find time and to make propaganda but to split an alliance. The error may have been Guatemala. For in the Caribbean, Great Britain played so significant a role.

At any rate, it would now appear that the alliance is not to collapse. A British decision on policy would have to be considered by Canada as well as Australia and New Zealand and could affect the Indian countries of the Commonwealth. A change of direction by Britain could be momentous.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

THE NORMAL CHILD

We read and hear so much about sick children and Sick Children's Hospitals that it will likely be a change to discuss the "Normal Child" as described by Dr. R. S. Illingworth, Professor of Child Health, the University of Sheffield. This helpful book is published both in London, England, and Toronto, Canada.

"This book very ably covers the whole field of the normal, healthy infant and small child; together with the medical facts is included a great deal of common sense."

The book starts at the very beginning by discussing both the artificial and breast-fed infants and has a very complete discussion of these problems.

The next section deals with the physical problems, such as the measuring of physical development, including the chest circumference. For instance, in the normally developed chest, the measurements should be approximately ten inches wide and seven inches deep. If the child is not developing properly, the chest tends to become deeper and narrower.

The third section deals with the problems of development and contains a very excellent description in pictures of how the standing and sitting positions develop and also the progress of manipulation of the hands at various ages from 4 weeks to 3 years.

The fourth and final section discusses behavior problems seen in the well infant and the small child.

While the information in this book is well known to the practicing pediatrician, the book would be of considerable aid to the general practitioner who includes well baby care in his practice and to the nurse or medical student.

It has already been noted that the periods of most rapid growth are (1) during the first year and (2) between the ages of eleven and fourteen in girls and fourteen to sixteen in boys. It should be remembered that if a child is getting enough calories, body-building materials (proteins, mineral salts, etc.) and vitamins in its food, it will grow at approximately normal rate unless something is holding it back. If the child is not making normal gains although the diet is adequate, a physician should be consulted to see if he cannot locate the trouble.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA)—New Jersey's young Democratic Gov. Robert B. Meyner showed up with a good line of political hokum on his first visit to Washington since his surprise election.

Being something of a punster, he referred to his election as the "Republican Meyner deviation."

He has been making a lot of speeches since election, he said. At one of them he was photographed openmouthed in front of a restaurant bearing a sign, "Open 24 hours a day."

The Republican Legislature had raised the governor's salary last year and bought a new Cadillac, thinking they would be for Republican use, of course. Meyner said he was enjoying both.

He told about the time some rich man had offered to give a million dollars to some college if it would award a degree to his horse. In presenting the diploma, the president of the institution said, "This is the first time we have ever awarded a degree to a whole horse."

Referring to his election as New Jersey's chief executive as having been "in the bag" from the start, Governor Meyner told a story about a man who married a recalcitrant widow with a boisterous son. After they were married they went back to the (New Jersey) shore resort where the courting had been done, taking the boy along.

One morning the boy was observed coming in out of the surf. He was asked how he liked his new stepfather. "Just fine," said the boy. "Every morning early he rows me out five miles and lets me swim ashore."

"That's pretty far for a boy of your size. Do you like that?" he was asked.

"Sure," said the boy. "There's nothing to it once you get out of the bag."

Citizens around Wichita, Kan., were recently nonplussed when the Boeing aircraft plant paid $1408 for 92 pinball machines which had been seized in raids by the county sheriff.

The Air Force now says that the gambling machines were purchased for the electronic devices in them. These included relay switches and transformers. As it turned out, this transaction saved around $8000 in the salvage of the electronic gear.

One of the more intriguing stories told by Lt. Noh Kum Sok, the North Korean pilot who delivered a Russian MIG to the U.S. Air Force and collected a $100,000 reward for it, concerns the experience which the Russians had with Chinese cooks.

At one of the Russian jet bases behind the Yalu river in Manchuria, everything was Soviet-supplied except the Chinese cooks who prepared Russian food for the pilots.

Trouble was, their cooking was too good. All the Russian pilots grew fat. When a Russian inspector general discovered this situation he quickly ordered a change. He made the Chinese cooks prepare only Korean food. Everyone on the base quickly became streamlined.

Arthur Larson, Undersecretary of Labor, tells the story of the first speech he ever made. "I was talking to a group of South Dakota farmers. I had a very carefully prepared and memorized speech, and delivered it in my best public-speaking class style.

"After it was all over, I asked one of the farmers in the crowd what he thought of it. 'Well,' he said, 'it wasn't too bad. But a half hour of rain would have done a damn sight more good.'"

The April issue of Koznoveles, a magazine for teachers in Communist Hungary, prints these examples of homework for first-grade pupils to develop their moral concepts:

"The Soviet man is considerate and tender. However, there are people in capitalist countries who want a war in order to murder people and make more money this way.

"We have to be attentive and well-meaning toward our people and the Soviet people. However, we have to behave differently toward the enemy. The little boy was considerate and tender to his small sister. But he was also right when he threw a hand grenade among the Germans."

The American pledge of allegiance to the U. S. flag needs to have more godliness put into it, according to 11 congressmen. They have presented separate but identical resolutions to amend the pledge. All of the resolutions want the wording changed from "One nation, indivisible" to "One nation, under God, indivisible."

Rep. Louis C. Rabaut (D., Mich.) says of this proposal: "Remember, when you hear your own children recite the pledge of allegiance, that these same words as they now stand could come from little Muscovite children standing before the red hammer-and-sickle flag of Soviet Russia."

Bible Comes Back

Hammond, Ind. (AP) — Police Capt. Namon Dimitroff lost a pocket New Testament 36 years ago while in Greek Macedonia visiting his home of Dumbeny. The other day the book arrived at his home by mail. An enclosed note from a Greek soldier said he had found it on a street in Volos, Greece, which Dimitroff did not visit. Capt. Dimitroff had written his Hammond address inside the Bible.

Countries Abroad Uneasy About General War While U.S. Is Engrossed With Domestic Issues

By DAVID LAWRENCE

London, June 2—Having just examined a batch of front pages of representative newspapers sent from different parts of the United States and having just looked at the principal British and French newspapers of the last few days, one finds the contrast impressive. Over here there seems to be an awareness of the world tension, whereas in America the many domestic issues and controversies appear to have absorbed the nation's attention.

This correspondent has often thought that each week a war communique could be written on "World War Three Communist style," which has been going on for a long time now without events being put into perspective. The Communist activities in many parts of the world are related to a global plan of "cold war." Here is how the communique would read if written on the basis of happenings of the last few days in which Communist intrigue unquestionably played a part:

1. Pakistan — Communist conspirators have stirred up trouble in the eastern part of this country, and the central government has just dismissed the Bengal cabinet and taken over. More than 300 persons have been arrested in a crackdown on Communist violence.

2. Central Africa—The British governor of Uganda has reimposed a state of emergency in the province of a means of meeting the pressure of threats and intimidation by native leaders. Three local newspapers accused of stirring up trouble have been suppressed.

3. Tunisia (North Africa) — Measures have been announced by the French authorities to stamp out terrorism, including the arming of French settlers. Infantry reinforcements have arrived here from Algeria.

4. Egypt—Another Briton has been killed in the Suez Canal Zone, and other disturbing incidents reveal that conditions of stability are not being achieved. There is evidence of deliberate efforts to foment more differences between Egypt and Great Britain.

5. Central America—Discovery of shipments of arms consigned to Guatemala from Poland has produced great unrest in the neighboring republics, as the Communist strategy converges on the Panama Canal.

The communique could include many other pertinent items, among them the news of the espionage conducted on Australian territory by Soviet agents and the revelations of espionage in the trials in northern Norway which form a pattern with the espionage data obtained by Americans from Khokhlov and others who are deserting from the Communist side of the Iron Curtain. Any communique, moreover, would have to be devoted to the rather extensive "hot war" now going on in Indochina where the forces of France and many thousands of native troops are daily engaged in hostilities. The impact of the Indochina war on the whole world cannot be underestimated.

Thus, in a telephone talk today, a well-informed newspaper man in Germany reports a state of uneasiness in that country about the possible outbreak of a general war. Whenever the world seems tottering toward a general war, the people of Germany—who think they may be the first to bear the brunt of military operations—get nervous. It cannot be denied that talk of American intervention in the Indochina war is interpreted by many Europeans as a possible forerunner to a world war of an atomic nature. The Geneva conference has been watched with far more sensitivity in Europe than in America, and yet Europeans are inclined to believe the fate of Indochina rests upon American aid. Otherwise, they write off that area as likely to be soon in the control of the Communists.

It should be noted that, with all the talk of "partition" of Indochina which has been coming from the French side, Mr. Molotov opposes any such arrangement. He prefers that all of Vietnam be kept intact and not divided. For he wants "general elections" and is confident that in such elections Vietnam would fall to the Communist-led Vietminh groups.

The London viewpoint on Geneva is one of restrained hope. The Conservative newspapers give Foreign Minister Eden credit for having moved the conference along to its present stage, but they indicate their skepticism as to the ultimate outcome. It seems clear that, when Mr. Molotov returned to Moscow, he went to obtain from the Kremlin a decision on how far he should go either in stalling a settlement or in agreeing to some formula for settlement. It is obvious that his original instructions were to feel out the situation and see how firm the positions of the various delegations were—something that it has taken five weeks to develop—and then come up with a scheme either for early settlement or eventual compromise.

It is possible that the French reorganization of its military set-up in Indochina has had a profound effect on the Soviets, for the Moscow newspaper comments indicate considerable irritation with the French and manifest applause for the British efforts to attain an agreement at Geneva. The diplomatic game of devious method sometimes succeeds and all is then forgiven but, when it breaks down, the recriminations are likely to be severe. So Mr. Eden's fate depends on whether the Soviets finally come along with a peace plan for Indochina that the west can accept.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, May 31—It may be futile to argue that the income-tax is an iniquity against the form of government bequeathed to us by the founding fathers, but that is what it is just the same. And the iniquity of the tax is set forth better than I have read it before in a small book by Frank Chodorov called "The Income Tax; Root of All Evil."

It is customary in discussions of books to name the publishers so I will state that Devin-Adair, of New York, did this one and add that J. Bracken Lee, the governor of Utah, and a pro-Republican Republican, did an enlightening introduction. There are not many pro-Republican Republicans today. President Eisenhower's palace guard are pro-Democratic and the President's own remarks on social security are those of a man who belies his Republican label by expounding Marxian heresy.

Governor Lee may be presidential material himself in the coming political fight to determine the fate of the Republican party and the nation. He is a constitutional Republican and, although there is a superstition that a man from a desert state of scant population is automatically disqualified, that is only a superstition. We have seen many novelties in recent years such as the fourth term and a proposal to extend the franchise to kids of 18. This one would be no more drastic.

Governor Lee reminds us that we Americans remained free only as long as the central government was too weak to intervene in the private affairs of the people.

"The early American wanted it that way," he says. "He had just rid himself of far-away political establishment and he was not going to tolerate anything like it in his newly founded country. He recognized the need of government to keep order, but he wanted it understood that the powers of that government would be clearly defined and limited. In recognition of this fear, the founding fathers put into the Constitution very specific restraints.

"The 16th Amendment changed all that. By enabling the federal government to put its hands into the pockets and pay envelopes of the people, it drew their allegiance away from their local governments. Their loyalty followed their money, which was taken from them not by their local representatives, over whom they had some control, but by representatives of the 47 other states. The state governments lost more and more of their autonomy. Not only was their sources of revenue being dried up by federal pre-emption but they were compelled to apply to the central authorities for help.

"The economic power which the federal government secured by the 16th Amendment enabled it to bribe state governments as well as citizens, into submission. In that way, the whole spirit of the Union and the Constitution has been liquidated. It is only because it has this enormous revenue that the federal government is able to violate the citizen's right to himself and his property. Every state now contributes more to the federal government than it gets back. With the abolition of income taxation the states will be better able to serve their citizens and there is a greater chance that the citizens will get their full dollar's worth."

Chodorov says "take a look at the income-tax report that you are required by law to make out and you will see that the government arbitrarily sets down the amount of your income that you may have for your living, your business requirements, the maintenance of your family. After granting these exemptions with a flourish of generosity, the government decides what percentage of the remainder it will appropriate. The rest you may have. The amount that you may retain is determined by the needs of the government and you have nothing to say about it. The government can take everything the citizen earns" a fact which General Eisenhower seemed not to know when, soon after his inauguration, he naively said the American people had a right to the fruit of their toil.

At the risk of seeming immodest I would say that I believe I have set forth some of the same criticisms of the income tax from time to time in recent years. But the virtue of this book is that it concentrates the case in small compass and for the first time since 1913 when our people first paid the income tax, presents the arguments of those members of Congress who in that fateful time fought against old Cordell Hull's demagogic innovation.

"The axiom of socialim is that the individual has no inherent rights. The privilges and prerogatives that the individual enjoys are grants from society, acting through its management committee, the government. In support of his denial of natural rights the Socialist points out that there is no postive proof. Where is the documentary evidence? Did God hand man a signed statement endowing him with the rights he claims for himself but denies to birds and beasts? If in answer, you bring in the soul idea, how can you prove that man has a soul?

"Those who accept the axiom of natural rights are backed

The Republic of Korea has proposed that free elections be held under the supervision of the United Nations; the Korean and Chinese Reds take the position that UN supervision would be unacceptable and propose instead a neutral commission.

The kind of "neutral" commission the Reds would agree to has been set up in the past. They have never accomplished anything for they have always had members picked by the Reds as part of the commission and this allowed the Reds to veto anything which did not meet their approval.

Korea should be unified. It does not make sense to have a division among people who speak the same language and who have so many common problems and traditions. But it appears that only unification along Red lines is possible as long as the Communists stubbornly insist on putting stumbling blocks in the way of every effort to achieve unification.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE BRITISH ARE LEARNING

The British are beginning to learn that the sole purpose of the Geneva Conference, from the Soviet standpoint, has been to create a climate favorable for splitting Great Britain from the United States.

While Geneva goes on meeting and speaking, the conquest of Indichina continues and a well-timed diversion is established in Guatemala. The Soviet timetable of World disorder and world conquest moves apace, but should the British stand firmly with the United States on the organization of a Pacific NATO, the whole atmosphere could change.

The Asiatics have come so to believe in the inevitability of Russian successes that they assumed that the split between the United States and Great Britain was inevitable. Every defection, every misunderstanding, every speech on the subject in the British Parliament has been played up as indicative of the trend. The Asiatics also assumed that public opinion in the United States would not tolerate the United States going alone in Indochina or anywhere else in Asia.

The test of American strength would be whether the countries in Asia with which we have security treaties would stand by us or by Great Britain should a split come. John Foster Dulles himself described the importance of this group of nations:

"My recollection of this effort goes back to 1951, when I negotiated treaties with the Philippines and Australia and New Zealand. These treaties recognize that that area is one of vital importance to the United States. And these treaties also recognize, and were cited, that they were only a beginning—only initial steps, toward the development of a more comprehensive system of security in the Pacific area."

To accommodate British opinion, Formosa has been excluded from this group. Pakistan has a separate arrangement with the United States. Japan and the Republic of Korea must be included. But the heart of the problem was and is, what would Great Britain do? And the formal position of Great Britain has been that Geneva must be completed before the British would do anything further about the Pacific.

It would seem that Molotov and Chou En-lai overplayed their hand. Geneva could go on forever, a Panmunjom style endless talk, while the Soviet Universal State conquered Indochina and moved on to Thailand. This obviously is as intolerable a situation for the British as it is for the United States. How long can Anthony Eden listen to the nerve-wracking, insulting speeches delivered at Geneva by Molotov, Chou and the other Soviet representatives?

It is in this asmosphere that the British are having another look at Geneva. They have not experienced a Chinese truce conference such as we experienced at Panmunjom. In his book, "From the Danube to the Yalu," General Mark Clark describes what such a conference can become:

"The Communists did not want to give up the propaganda platform at Panmunjom unless they had to. There were too many things they could say and do there to help their cause everywhere. . . .

"Vituperative lies and distortions flowed in great abundance from the nimble tongue of Nam Il who had the ability to voice the most blatant falsehoods while keeping a straight face. Among the propaganda charges he hurled across the conference table were the flat declarations that America had 'press ganged' Great Britain, France and other nations into fighting against communism in Korea, and that the United States wanted all Korea as a colony from which to invade China and start World War III. The mere fact that America, Britain and France sent troops thousands of miles to fight in Korea, he said, proved that America and the United Nations were the aggressor."

It is even so at Geneva, but in the Swiss city the goal is not only to find time and to make propaganda but to split an alliance. The error may have been Guatemala. For in the Caribbean, Great Britain played so significant a role.

At any rate, it would now appear that the alliance is not to collapse. A British decision on policy would have to be considered by Canada as well as Australia and New Zealand and could affect the Indian countries of the Commonwealth. A change of direction by Britain could be momentous.

That Body of Yours

THE NORMAL CHILD

We read and hear so much about sick children and Sick Children's Hospitals that it will likely be a change to discuss the "Normal Child" as described by Dr. R. S. Illingworth, Professor of Child Health, the University of Sheffield. This helpful book is published both in London, England, and Toronto, Canada.

"This book very ably covers the whole field of the normal, healthy infant and small child; together with the medical facts is included a great deal of common sense."

The book starts at the very beginning by discussing both the artificial and breast-fed infants and has a very complete discussion of these problems.

The next section deals with the physical problems, such as the measuring of physical development, including the chest circumference. For instance, in the normally developed chest, the measurements should be approximately ten inches wide and seven inches deep. If the child is not developing properly, the chest tends to become deeper and narrower.

The third section deals with the problems of development and contains a very excellent description in pictures of how the standing and sitting positions develop and also the progress of manipulation of the hands at various ages from 4 weeks to 3 years.

The fourth and final section discusses behavior problems seen in the well infant and the small child.

While the information in this book is well known to the practicing pediatrician, the book would be of considerable aid to the general practitioner who includes well baby care in his practice and to the nurse or medical student.

It has already been noted that the periods of most rapid growth are (1) during the first year and (2) between the ages of eleven and fourteen in girls and fourteen to sixteen in boys. It should be remembered that if a child is getting enough calories, body-building materials (proteins, mineral salts, etc.) and vitamins in its food, it will grow at approximately normal rate unless something is holding it back. If the child is not making normal gains although the diet is adequate, a physician should be consulted to see if he cannot locate the trouble.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA)—New Jersey's young Democratic Gov. Robert B. Meyner showed up with a good line of political hokum on his first visit to Washington since his surprise election.

Being something of a punster, he referred to his election as the "Republican Meyner deviation."

He has been making a lot of speeches since election, he said. At one of them he was photographed openmouthed in front of a restaurant bearing a sign, "Open 24 hours a day."

The Republican Legislature had raised the governor's salary last year and bought a new Cadillac, thinking they would be for Republican use, of course. Meyner said he was enjoying both.

He told about the time some rich man had offered to give a million dollars to some college if it would award a degree to his horse. In presenting the diploma, the president of the institution said, "This is the first time we have ever awarded a degree to a whole horse."

Referring to his election as New Jersey's chief executive as having been "in the bag" from the start, Governor Meyner told a story about a man who married a recalcitrant widow with a boisterous son. After they were married they went back to the (New Jersey) shore resort where the courting had been done, taking the boy along.

One morning the boy was observed coming in out of the surf. He was asked how he liked his new stepfather. "Just fine," said the boy. "Every morning early he rows me out five miles and lets me swim ashore."

"That's pretty far for a boy of your size. Do you like that?" he was asked.

"Sure," said the boy. "There's nothing to it once you get out of the bag."

Citizens around Wichita, Kan., were recently nonplussed when the Boeing aircraft plant paid $1408 for 92 pinball machines which had been seized in raids by the county sheriff.

The Air Force now says that the gambling machines were purchased for the electronic devices in them. These included relay switches and transformers. As it turned out, this transaction saved around $8000 in the salvage of the electronic gear.

One of the more intriguing stories told by Lt. Noh Kum Sok, the North Korean pilot who delivered a Russian MIG to the U.S. Air Force and collected a $100,000 reward for it, concerns the experience which the Russians had with Chinese cooks.

At one of the Russian jet bases behind the Yalu river in Manchuria, everything was Soviet-supplied except the Chinese cooks who prepared Russian food for the pilots.

Trouble was, their cooking was too good. All the Russian pilots grew fat. When a Russian inspector general discovered this situation he quickly ordered a change. He made the Chinese cooks prepare only Korean food. Everyone on the base quickly became streamlined.

Arthur Larson, Undersecretary of Labor, tells the story of the first speech he ever made. "I was talking to a group of South Dakota farmers. I had a very carefully prepared and memorized speech, and delivered it in my best public-speaking class style.

"After it was all over, I asked one of the farmers in the crowd what he thought of it. 'Well,' he said, 'it wasn't too bad. But a half hour of rain would have done a damn sight more good.'"

The April issue of Koznoveles, a magazine for teachers in Communist Hungary, prints these examples of homework for first-grade pupils to develop their moral concepts:

"The Soviet man is considerate and tender. However, there are people in capitalist countries who want a war in order to murder people and make more money this way.

"We have to be attentive and well-meaning toward our people and the Soviet people. However, we have to behave differently toward the enemy. The little boy was considerate and tender to his small sister. But he was also right when he threw a hand grenade among the Germans."

The American pledge of allegiance to the U. S. flag needs to have more godliness put into it, according to 11 congressmen. They have presented separate but identical resolutions to amend the pledge. All of the resolutions want the wording changed from "One nation, indivisible" to "One nation, under God, indivisible."

Rep. Louis C. Rabaut (D., Mich.) says of this proposal: "Remember, when you hear your own children recite the pledge of allegiance, that these same words as they now stand could come from little Muscovite children standing before the red hammer-and-sickle flag of Soviet Russia."

Q—Are domestic animals ever found in a wild state?

A—Every kind of domestic animal is found wild in one part of the world or another.

Bible Comes Back

Hammond, Ind. (AP) — Police Capt. Namon Dimitroff lost a pocket New Testament 36 years ago while in Greek Macedonia visiting his home of Dumbeny. The other day the book arrived at his home by mail. An enclosed note from a Greek soldier said he had found it on a street in Volos, Greece, which Dimitroff did not visit. Capt. Dimitroff had written his Hammond address inside the Bible.

Countries Abroad Uneasy About General War While U.S. Is Engrossed With Domestic Issues

By DAVID LAWRENCE

London, June 2—Having just examined a batch of front pages of representative newspapers sent from different parts of the United States and having just looked at the principal British and French newspapers of the last few days, one finds the contrast impressive. Over here there seems to be an awareness of the world tension, whereas in America the many domestic issues and controversies appear to have absorbed the nation's attention.

This correspondent has often thought that each week a war communique could be written on "World War Three Communist style," which has been going on for a long time now without events being put into perspective. The Communist activities in many parts of the world are related to a global plan of "cold war." Here is how the communique would read if written on the basis of happenings of the last few days in which Communist intrigue unquestionably played a part:

1. Pakistan — Communist conspirators have stirred up trouble in the eastern part of this country, and the central government has just dismissed the Bengal cabinet and taken over. More than 300 persons have been arrested in a crackdown on Communist violence.

2. Central Africa—The British governor of Uganda has reimposed a state of emergency in the province of a means of meeting the pressure of threats and intimidation by native leaders. Three local newspapers accused of stirring up trouble have been suppressed.

3. Tunisia (North Africa) — Measures have been announced by the French authorities to stamp out terrorism, including the arming of French settlers. Infantry reinforcements have arrived here from Algeria.

4. Egypt—Another Briton has been killed in the Suez Canal Zone, and other disturbing incidents reveal that conditions of stability are not being achieved. There is evidence of deliberate efforts to foment more differences between Egypt and Great Britain.

5. Central America—Discovery of shipments of arms consigned to Guatemala from Poland has produced great unrest in the neighboring republics, as the Communist strategy converges on the Panama Canal.

The communique could include many other pertinent items, among them the news of the espionage conducted on Australian territory by Soviet agents and the revelations of espionage in the trials in northern Norway which form a pattern with the espionage data obtained by Americans from Khokhlov and others who are deserting from the Communist side of the Iron Curtain. Any communique, moreover, would have to be devoted to the rather extensive "hot war" now going on in Indochina where the forces of France and many thousands of native troops are daily engaged in hostilities. The impact of the Indochina war on the whole world cannot be underestimated.

Thus, in a telephone talk today, a well-informed newspaper man in Germany reports a state of uneasiness in that country about the possible outbreak of a general war. Whenever the world seems tottering toward a general war, the people of Germany—who think they may be the first to bear the brunt of military operations—get nervous. It cannot be denied that talk of American intervention in the Indochina war is interpreted by many Europeans as a possible forerunner to a world war of an atomic nature. The Geneva conference has been watched with far more sensitivity in Europe than in America, and yet Europeans are inclined to believe the fate of Indochina rests upon American aid. Otherwise, they write off that area as likely to be soon in the control of the Communists.

It should be noted that, with all the talk of "partition" of Indochina which has been coming from the French side, Mr. Molotov opposes any such arrangement. He prefers that all of Vietnam be kept intact and not divided. For he wants "general elections" and is confident that in such elections Vietnam would fall to the Communist-led Vietminh groups.

The London viewpoint on Geneva is one of restrained hope. The Conservative newspapers give Foreign Minister Eden credit for having moved the conference along to its present stage, but they indicate their skepticism as to the ultimate outcome. It seems clear that, when Mr. Molotov returned to Moscow, he went to obtain from the Kremlin a decision on how far he should go either in stalling a settlement or in agreeing to some formula for settlement. It is obvious that his original instructions were to feel out the situation and see how firm the positions of the various delegations were—something that it has taken five weeks to develop—and then come up with a scheme either for early settlement or eventual compromise.

It is possible that the French reorganization of its military set-up in Indochina has had a profound effect on the Soviets, for the Moscow newspaper comments indicate considerable irritation with the French and manifest applause for the British efforts to attain an agreement at Geneva. The diplomatic game of devious method sometimes succeeds and all is then forgiven but, when it breaks down, the recriminations are likely to be severe. So Mr. Eden's fate depends on whether the Soviets finally come along with a peace plan for Indochina that the west can accept.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, May 31—It may be futile to argue that the income-tax is an iniquity against the form of government bequeathed to us by the founding fathers, but that is what it is just the same. And the iniquity of the tax is set forth better than I have read it before in a small book by Frank Chodorov called "The Income Tax; Root of All Evil."

It is customary in discussions of books to name the publishers so I will state that Devin-Adair, of New York, did this one and add that J. Bracken Lee, the governor of Utah, and a pro-Republican Republican, did an enlightening introduction. There are not many pro-Republican Republicans today. President Eisenhower's palace guard are pro-Democratic and the President's own remarks on social security are those of a man who belies his Republican label by expounding Marxian heresy.

Governor Lee may be presidential material himself in the coming political fight to determine the fate of the Republican party and the nation. He is a constitutional Republican and, although there is a superstition that a man from a desert state of scant population is automatically disqualified, that is only a superstition. We have seen many novelties in recent years such as the fourth term and a proposal to extend the franchise to kids of 18. This one would be no more drastic.

Governor Lee reminds us that we Americans remained free only as long as the central government was too weak to intervene in the private affairs of the people.

"The early American wanted it that way," he says. "He had just rid himself of far-away political establishment and he was not going to tolerate anything like it in his newly founded country. He recognized the need of government to keep order, but he wanted it understood that the powers of that government would be clearly defined and limited. In recognition of this fear, the founding fathers put into the Constitution very specific restraints.

"The 16th Amendment changed all that. By enabling the federal government to put its hands into the pockets and pay envelopes of the people, it drew their allegiance away from their local governments. Their loyalty followed their money, which was taken from them not by their local representatives, over whom they had some control, but by representatives of the 47 other states. The state governments lost more and more of their autonomy. Not only was their sources of revenue being dried up by federal pre-emption but they were compelled to apply to the central authorities for help.

"The economic power which the federal government secured by the 16th Amendment enabled it to bribe state governments as well as citizens, into submission. In that way, the whole spirit of the Union and the Constitution has been liquidated. It is only because it has this enormous revenue that the federal government is able to violate the citizen's right to himself and his property. Every state now contributes more to the federal government than it gets back. With the abolition of income taxation the states will be better able to serve their citizens and there is a greater chance that the citizens will get their full dollar's worth."

Chodorov says "take a look at the income-tax report that you are required by law to make out and you will see that the government arbitrarily sets down the amount of your income that you may have for your living, your business requirements, the maintenance of your family. After granting these exemptions with a flourish of generosity, the government decides what percentage of the remainder it will appropriate. The rest you may have. The amount that you may retain is determined by the needs of the government and you have nothing to say about it. The government can take everything the citizen earns" a fact which General Eisenhower seemed not to know when, soon after his inauguration, he naively said the American people had a right to the fruit of their toil.

At the risk of seeming immodest I would say that I believe I have set forth some of the same criticisms of the income tax from time to time in recent years. But the virtue of this book is that it concentrates the case in small compass and for the first time since 1913 when our people first paid the income tax, presents the arguments of those members of Congress who in that fateful time fought against old Cordell Hull's demagogic innovation.

"The axiom of socialism is that the individual has no inherent rights. The privilges and prerogatives that the individual enjoys are grants from society, acting through its management committee, the government. In support of his denial of natural rights the Socialist points out that there is no postive proof. Where is the documentary evidence? Did God hand man a signed statement endowing him with the rights he claims for himself but denies to birds and beasts? If in answer, you bring in the soul idea, how can you prove that man has a soul?

"Those who accept the axiom of natural rights are backed

Modena

Modena, June 1—Rehearsals are underway for the annual Children's Day exercises to be held Sunday, June 13 in the Modena Methodist Church. A special program of entertainment will be presented and baptism rites conducted.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rappaport of New York city were in town recently, making arrangements for the reopening of the bungalow colony at the Modena Gardens, summer resort south of Modena village.

Preliminary steps are underway for the building of a new house for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Daunt and sons, Bobby and Timmy, in the Modena-Ardonia road section. Mr. Daunt is mail carrier between Highland and Gardiner.

Mrs. Lester A. Wager, Sr., visited her sister, Mrs. Melvin Carroll, at New Paltz Monday.

The birthday of Patricia Pagentine, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Pagentine, was celebrated with a party at her home Tuesday, following classes at the school.

Myron W. Miller, principal of the Hauppauge, Long Island school, and a former local resident visited friends here on Tuesday. He was en route to Albany on business.

Mrs. Lester A. Wager, Sr., and daughter, Kathleen, Mrs. Lester A. Wager Jr., and Miss Glennie M. Wager were in Highland Tuesday evening.

Wayne Smith has joined the Little League baseball team at New Paltz.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Kitleberger, is being repainted.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schonberg and son, Jon, who maintain a summer home here, spent the past week and holiday in this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tuthill of Long Island, who have been spending the past winter months in Florida, arrived in town Wednesday and visited their niece, Mrs. Lester A. Wager Sr.

Mrs. Tony Mouzithras entertained a number of visitors at her home, Wednesday.

Despite traffic signs, a number of accidents have occurred at the intersection of route 55, and the cross road, south east of Modena village. The dangerous section is near Lembo's cold storage plant, and danger signs are placed conspicuously for the benefit of drivers.

The dwelling house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Emory Conklin is being re-roofed.

Mrs. Henry Black was a visitor in New Paltz Thursday.

Mrs. Nellie White has returned from a visit with relatives in New York city.

Mrs. Ralph Tice and son Allan, were in New Paltz Thursday.

Mrs. Lester A. Wager Sr., and Miss Glennie M. Wager were in Kingston Thursday.

To Be Veterans' Day

Washington, June 2 (AP)—From now on, Nov. 11 will be celebrated as Veterans Day, instead of Armistice Day. President Eisenhower signed a bill yesterday changing the name of the holiday to honor American service veterans of all wars.

Salfi Appointed Accord Postmaster

Henry S. Salfi of the town of Rochester has been appointed postmaster at Accord as of May 24, it was announced today.

He has held the position of acting postmaster since April of last year.

He was born in New York and attended public schools there. In March, 1942, he was inducted into the army, was wounded at Okinawa in 1945 and received an honorable discharge in September, 1945, with the rank of staff sergeant.

In 1947 Salfi purchased the former James H. Enderly property and engaged in the raising of poultry. During this time he also acted as temporary carrier after the retirement of Percy W. Gazley. He is a member of the De Leo-Braunstein-Maier Post 8959, Kerhonkson, Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is married and has three children.

Gilkey Announces Three Promotions In 854th Aviation

Three promotions in the 854th Engineer Aviation Battalion (Reserve) were announced today by Lt. Raymond W. Gilkey, adjutant.

Sgt. William G. Paulding of 55 Wrentham street was promoted to sergeant first class and Cpl. John H. Goerke of 89 Elmendorf street and Cpl. Richard E. Peterson of Woodstock to sergeant.

Sgt. Paulding served on active duty during 1948-1950 with the army of occupation in West Berlin. Since his separation in 1950 he has been active in the army reserve. At present he is assigned to Headquarters and Service Company as a supply sergeant.

Sgt. Goerke is a 1947 graduate of Kingston High School and served on active duty with the signal corps at Camp Gordon, Ga., 1951-1953. Since his separation in 1953, Sgt. Goerke has been assigned as a clerk to Headquarters and Service Company.

Sgt. Peterson was graduated from Kingston High School in 1947 and served with the United States forces in Austria from 1951 to 1953. He is presently assigned as a supply sergeant. Sgt. Peterson is employed by the Rotron Manufacturing Company in Woodstock as a dispatcher-expediter.

Fire for Dinner

Pottstown, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. George Brill, of Pottstown, saw a fire in the kitchen of a neighbor's home and called the fire department. Two volunteer fire companies, a service truck and an ambulance arrived in time to see the neighbors' chicken prepared for Sunday dinner. The fire was the singeing of the chicken's pinfeathers.

Modena

Modena, June 1—Rehearsals are underway for the annual Children's Day exercises to be held Sunday, June 13 in the Modena Methodist Church. A special program of entertainment will be presented and baptism rites conducted.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rappaport of New York city were in town recently, making arrangements for the reopening of the bungalow colony at the Modena Gardens, summer resort south of Modena village.

Preliminary steps are underway for the building of a new house for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Daunt and sons, Bobby and Timmy, in the Modena-Ardonia road section. Mr. Daunt is mail carrier between Highland and Gardiner.

Mrs. Lester A. Wager, Sr., visited her sister, Mrs. Melvin Carroll, at New Paltz Monday.

The birthday of Patricia Pagentine, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Pagentine, was celebrated with a party at her home Tuesday, following classes at the school.

Myron W. Miller, principal of the Hauppauge, Long Island school, and a former local resident visited friends here on Tuesday. He was en route to Albany on business.

Mrs. Lester A. Wager, Sr., and daughter, Kathleen, Mrs. Lester A. Wager Jr., and Miss Glennie M. Wager were in Highland Tuesday evening.

Wayne Smith has joined the Little League baseball team at New Paltz.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Kitleberger, is being repainted.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schonberg and son, Jon, who maintain a summer home here, spent the past week and holiday in this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tuthill of Long Island, who have been spending the past winter months in Florida, arrived in town Wednesday and visited their niece, Mrs. Lester A. Wager Sr.

Mrs. Tony Mouzithras entertained a number of visitors at her home, Wednesday.

Despite traffic signs, a number of accidents have occurred at the intersection of route 55, and the cross road, south east of Modena village. The dangerous section is near Lembo's cold storage plant, and danger signs are placed conspicuously for the benefit of drivers.

The dwelling house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Emory Conklin is being re-roofed.

Mrs. Henry Black was a visitor in New Paltz Thursday.

Mrs. Nellie White has returned from a visit with relatives in New York city.

Mrs. Ralph Tice and son Allan, were in New Paltz Thursday.

Mrs. Lester A. Wager Sr., and Miss Glennie M. Wager were in Kingston Thursday.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

To Be Veterans' Day

Washington, June 2 (AP)—From now on, Nov. 11 will be celebrated as Veterans Day, instead of Armistice Day. President Eisenhower signed a bill yesterday changing the name of the holiday to honor American service veterans of all wars.

Salfi Appointed Accord Postmaster

Henry S. Salfi of the town of Rochester, has been appointed postmaster at Accord as of May 24, it was announced today.

He has held the position of acting postmaster since April of last year.

He was born in New York and attended public schools there. In March, 1942, he was inducted into the army, was wounded at Okinawa in 1945 and received an honorable discharge in September, 1945, with the rank of staff sergeant.

In 1947 Salfi purchased the former James H. Enderly property and engaged in the raising of poultry. During this time he also acted as temporary carrier after the retirement of Percy W. Gazley. He is a member of the De Leo-Braunstein-Maier Post 8959, Kerhonkson, Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is married and has three children.

Gilkey Announces Three Promotions In 854th Aviation

Three promotions in the 854th Engineer Aviation Battalion (Reserve) were announced today by Lt. Raymond W. Gilkey, adjutant.

Sgt. William G. Paulding of 55 Wrentham street was promoted to sergeant first class and Cpl. John H. Goerke of 89 Elmendorf street and Cpl. Richard E. Peterson of Woodstock to sergeant.

Sgt. Paulding served on active duty during 1948-1950 with the army of occupation in West Berlin. Since his separation in 1950 he has been active in the army reserve. At present he is assigned to Headquarters and Service Company as a supply sergeant.

Two Workmen Are Killed on Sirago

Portsmouth, N. H., June 2 (AP)—A flash explosion early today killed two civilian workmen aboard the navy submarine Sirago as she lay in drydock at the Portsmouth naval shipyard.

A sailor on fire watch duty nearby was burned by the blast, but his condition was described as "not critical."

Six other civilians working on the submarine were not injured.

Capt. Robert E. Cronin, commander of the shipyard, said the blast was in the submarine's main ballast tank where the two victims were spraying a plastic substance.

To Probe Blast

He said the submarine did not appear heavily damaged, but added a thorough survey was ordered immediately to be followed by an investigation of what he described as the "flash explosion."

The navy identified the dead men as Raouel Senechel, 28, of Somerworth, and Joseph E. A. Rousseau, 40, of Portsmouth, both painters.

The injured sailor's name was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The Sirago pulled into Portsmouth recently for overhauling after service with the fleet.

She was launched on May 11, 1945 and was commissioned the following Aug. 14.

The accounts in Connecticut's savings banks average $1,355 each.

Conviction Thrown Out

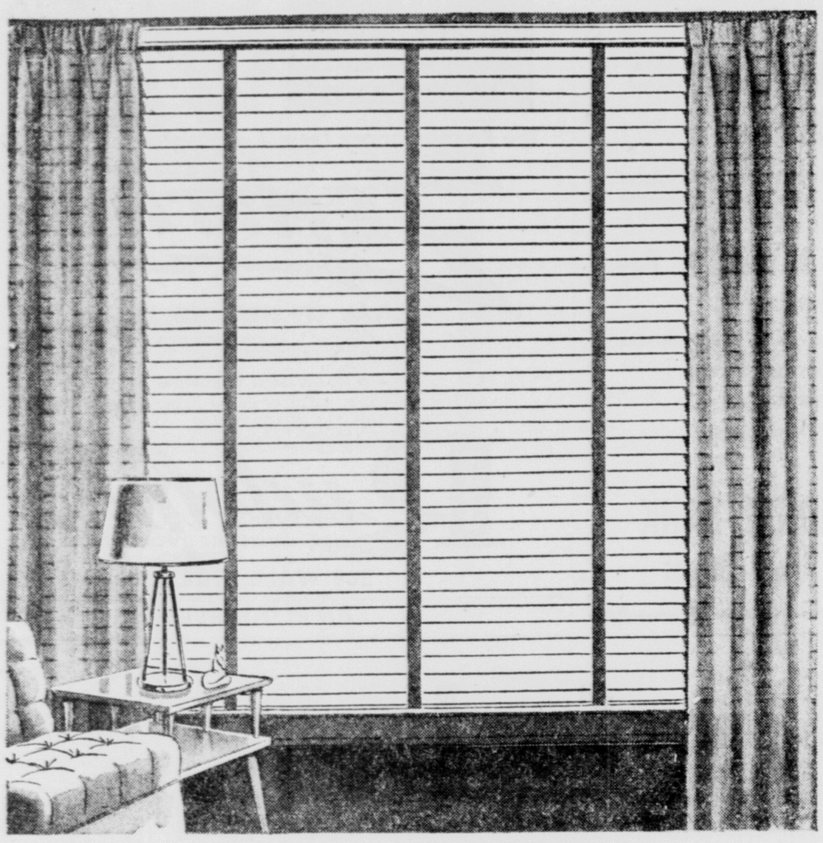

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The Supreme Court has thrown out the murder conviction of a New York man because it found he confessed after his "ability to resist interrogation was broken to almost trance-like submission" by a psychiatrist working with the police. Voting 5-3, the court yester overturned the second conviction of Camilo W. Leyra, 54, for the hammer slaying of his 75-year-old father, Camilo, four years ago. The New York Court of Appeals reversed his first conviction. He drew the death penalty in both trials on first degree murder charges. Leyra now may be tried a third time.

Oppenheimer Fined $25 For Dangerous Speed

Joseph Oppenheimer, 54, taxicab driver of 302 Wall street, was found guilty of a charge of driving at a dangerous speed and was fined $25 by Justice of the Peace Harold E. Macholdt of the town of Ulster after a trial without jury Tuesday night.

Oppenheimer was the driver of a taxicab that was in collision with a tractor-trailer on the Onteora Trail at the Thruway approach construction area west of Kingston on April 19, according to a state police report. He was arrested by Trooper J. Ripa on complaint of Alford Barrett, 38, of Arena, the truck driver. The original charge, accusing him of driving while intoxicated, was dismissed by Justice Macholdt on May 7, and the dangerous speed charge substituted.

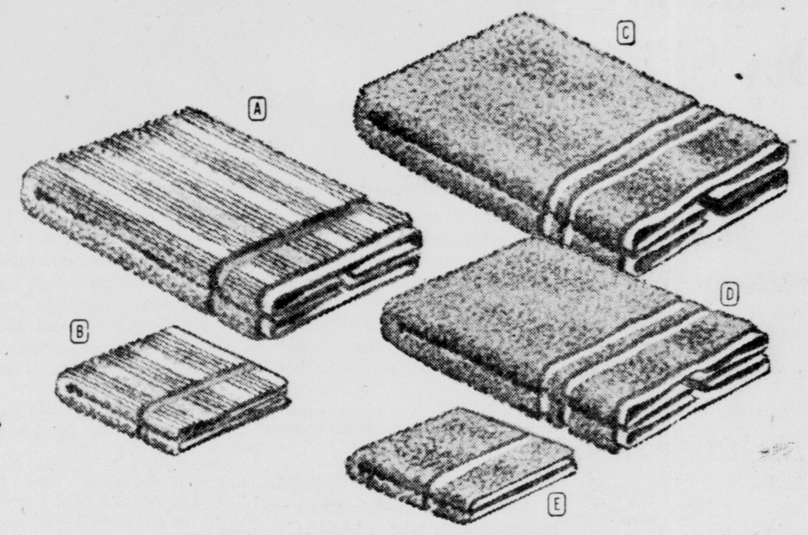

Oppenheimer was represented during Tuesday night's trial by Attorney Charles Gaffney. Attorney S. James Matthews appeared for the district attorney's office.

Taxi Law . . .

contribute to the limit on the basis of the negotiation for settlement.

$5,000 City Share

Of the proposed settlement sum of $10,000, he said, $5,000 would be paid by the city.

It was indicated after a recess that some of the aldermen were not in favor of immediate approval of the $7,965.38 for the sewer project in the area of the Wilbur avenue dump because of a reported agreement that the line was not to be covered by refuse, and the dissenting aldermen claim that there has been dumping in the area.

To Modernize Ordinance

Attorney Bernard A. Culloton, representing local taxi interests, submitted a proposed amendment to the present ordinance on the "licensing and regulating" of cabmen in the city, and in a letter explained that it was aimed at modernizing the 33-year-old ordinance.

The amendment, he said, would safeguard the interests and established businesses "of local citizens now operating taxis for hire, both individual and fleet owners.

The cabmen, it indicated, forsee the possibility of other operators starting after the IBM locates here, and it noted that some of the local cabmen have been in business upwards of 25 years. Their businesses, said the letter, is their sole source of livelihood and they are local taxpayers and rentpayers.

Look for Changes

The cabman look for a "decided change" in various phases of community life with the coming of the IBM, the attorney said, and they could forsee the possibility of an influx in the taxi business." The present ordinance, he said, offers "little or no control" and he held the change was aimed at "strenghtening the hand" of the enforcement agency, the police department and the police board, so that any influx "to reap the benefit" of the IBM locating here, could be screened and checked before licensing.

The proposed resolution and letter were referred to the corporation counsel and laws and rules committee.

Would Save Water

A resolution by Tenth Ward Alderman James K. Ryan, noting that the use of air conditioning equipment was becoming more widespread each year, and suggesting the use of "water savers on air conditioning equipment in the city" was referred by Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly to the corporation counsel and laws and rules committee.

Large stores, he said, use large quantities of water, and "the rule of thumb" is one and a half gallons of water a minute per ton rating of the air conditioner involved."

This, he said, was true "only when the water is allowed to run through the machine and right down the drain. When using proper equipment to conserve water, such as a condenser, the requirement drops to about 40 or 50 gallons per month in the case of 10-ton units."

Supply Dwindles

Although meters insure payment to the city for excessive water use, he said, experts seem now agreed that "the water table of the country is gradually getting lower, and since the city is now going to provide the new IBM plant with water in addition to normal requirements of the city," he said, he favored the ounce-of-prevention policy and asked consideration of water savers. He asked a report back at the next meeting so that information could be used as the basis of an ordinance.

Ryan also offered the resolution asking that something be done about war memorial tablets and it was referred to the aldermen for consideration in their respective wards.

Many of the memorials, he noted, were in "pitiable condition," and since recently a memorial stone to veterans of all wars and campaigns was unveiled at the municipal stadium (now Dietz Stadium) and since it will be more suitable and permanent, that the public works department at the discretion of the aldermen be empowered to remove the "weather-beaten affairs."

Alderman Ryan also proposed that the city engineer investigate the possibility of the use of "extruded metal" and of occasions where it is used at present in steps and landings of fire escapes."

The present attitude, he said, "seems to be that the material is not specified in ordinances at present." Its use, he felt, would decrease "by a large percentage the cost of installing fire escapes as are required for many dwellings under the Mitchell Bill which becomes effective July 1.

Cites Advantages

Present estimates, he noted, indicated prohibitive costs in some instances, and he felt that "many flats and apartments will be withdrawn from the market" and he felt that as long as "extruded metal" will do the job safely, "I feel that we in the Common Council should do our part to make it available to those who wish to use it." The resolution was referred to the city engineer.

A claim of $402.73 was filed by Betty Kogon, of 364 Washington avenue, through Attorney Harry Gold for damage done to the basement at 364 Washington avenue through alleged negligent maintenance of a city sewer on Washington avenue. The damage occured last Feb. 12. The claim was referred to the corporation counsel.

Also referred was a claim for $125 filed by Mrs. Catherine H. Hinkley, of 56 VanDeusen street, for injuries suffered in a fall on a sidewalk on Van Deusen street on May 7. It was caused by tree roots and a break in flagging the letter said.

Culloton Appointed

A letter from Mayor Frederick H. Stang announcing the appointment of Bernard A. Culloton to the Municipal Civil Service Commission, to replace Howard C. St. John, who had resigned, was read and filed. The moyor also informed the aldermen of his recent reappointment of Thomas J. Finnerty to the civil service commission and John J. Schwenk to the water board.

A letter from the Ulster County Chapter, Civil Service Employes Association, noted that the association had asked consideration of a bid for a three weeks vacation for city employes and action on a social security proposal, and it asked for some action now in considering these. Alderman Abram D. Relyea, 11th ward, said he understood that something would be done that would be satisfactory to all.

Resolutions

Resolutions offered by aldermen:

Cole—That equipment used in the building of a diversion chamber in the Gilead street area be removed and debris be cleared and trucked away.

Relyea — That something be done to quench the fire on the Wilbur avenue dump, that holes be filled on Linderman avenue from Wall street to the city line, on Franklin street, Greenkill avenue and Marius street, and that something be done to keep trucks off the sidewalk on Marius street between Washington and Josephine avenues.

Storms—That a small light on Ardsley street be replaced by a larger one, and trees trimmed to improve light. That a light be placed at Charlotte and Harrison streets, and a new fixture put on Harrison street.

Cullum—that a sign be placed on Coffey Place between Hurley and Howland avenues reading "Children at Play."

Brandt—that gutter be fixed at 66 Hunter street, a manhole fixed at Ravine and German, and a no-parking sign be placed on Spring street between Post street and Broadway.

Norton—that holes on Newkirk avenue between Broadway and Chambers street be repaired.

Alderman Ryan wanted to know why a dust condition followed the repair of Prospect street, and other aldermen indicated that this was due to a special method of finishing off the paved surface and noted that the condition lasts about a week.

Would Bar TV

Rochester, June 2 (AP) — The President of the New York State Bar Assn. said last night that any code of fair procedure for congressional investigations should provide "a complete elimination of radio and television in the hearing room." Hunter L. Delatour spoke at the annual dinner of the Rochester Bar Assn. He said: "The televised hearings that have taken place in the past may have been amusing to the public at times, but a continuance of them will in my opinion result in the total destruction of our system of order and decorum and a breakdown in the administration of justice."

More Aid for Honduras

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, June 2 (AP) — The United States stepped up military aid today to Honduras, southern neighbor of Communist-influenced Guatemala and a potential ally in blocking any Red move toward the Panama Canal. U. S. Army Col. M. C. Shattuck, chief of the U. S. Military Mission in Honduras, lined up a training program for officers of a new 800-man combat battalion to be whipped into shape. The Honduran war minister, Gen. Leonidas Pineda, announced the United States is sending more arms and tanks for the outfit.

Lecture Thursday

The second in the series of lectures sponsored by the Senate House Association is scheduled for Thursday at 8 p. m. at St. James Methodist Church. A set of 40 colored slides showing Museum of Modern Art masterpieces will be shown, and Professor Benjamin Karp of New Paltz State Teachers College will give an introductory talk on the appreciation of modern art. Association members of the Senate House Association have been invited to attend. A small charge will be made to cover refreshments.

Control of insects in recent years has added a third to U. S. potato production per acre.

Mystery Blasts

Saigon, Indochina, June 2 (AP)—Blasts of mystery origin gutted part of a multi-million dollar French munition dump today, killing at least one person and injuring French and Vietnamese. Authorities voiced fear the shattering explosions rocking Saigon might go on for two days. It was not immediately determined whether the explosions resulted from an accident or sabotage by the Communist-led Vietminh, many of whom are known to be in Saigon. But the French command put the Saigon garrison on an immediate alert and troops were ordered to return to their billets at once.

Speaks in Monroe

Captain James W. Strother, a resident of Kingston, was the principal speaker at the Memorial Day exercises and parade in Monroe Monday. Captain Strother, who has been on active duty with the air force since the beginning of World War 2, is the commander of the Aviation Cadet Selection Detachment of Stewart Field. He expects transfer soon to the Air Force Recruiting Main Station, New Haven, Conn. Captain Strother and his family have been residing with Mrs. Strother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Cater, 103 Downs street.

A modern coal mine is not black, but white from pulverized limestone sprayed on the walls to reduce fire hazards.

Dr. R. Houston to Speak

The Rev. Ralph M. Houston, pastor of St. James Methodist Church, will speak today at 7:30 p. m. at the YWCA. His talk, What Is a Protestant, will be the second in a series of lectures sponsored by the teen age department of the YWCA. The public is invited. There is no admission charge.

contribute to the limit on the basis of the negotiation for settlement.

$5,000 City Share

Of the proposed settlement sum of $10,000, he said, $5,000 would be paid by the city.

It was indicated after a recess that some of the aldermen were not in favor of immediate approval of the $7,965.38 for the sewer project in the area of the Wilbur avenue dump because of a reported agreement that the line was not to be covered by refuse, and the dissenting aldermen claim that there has been dumping in the area.

To Modernize Ordinance

Attorney Bernard A. Culloton, representing local taxi interests, submitted a proposed amendment to the present ordinance on the "licensing and regulating" of cabmen in the city, and in a letter explained that it was aimed at modernizing the 33-year-old ordinance.

The amendment, he said, would safeguard the interests and established businesses "of local citizens now operating taxis for hire, both individual and fleet owners.

The cabmen, it indicated, forsee the possibility of other operators starting after the IBM locates here, and it noted that some of the local cabmen have been in business upwards of 25 years. Their businesses, said the letter, is their sole source of livelihood and they are local taxpayers and rentpayers.

Look for Changes

The cabman look for a "decided change" in various phases of community life with the coming of the IBM, the attorney said, and they could forsee the possibility of an influx in the taxi business." Memoriam

In sad and loving remembrance of our darling son, Roscoe Perry, Jr., on his 7th birthday.
Happy Birthday in Heaven, dear.
Time has a magic for stealing away,
The heartache and sorrow that grieve us today.
And time has a magic that always keeps near,
The cherished remembrances of someone so dear.
Loving parents & sisters,
MR. & MRS. ROSCOE PERRY, SR.

Memoriam

In loving memory of Cpl. Vincent Yonta, who was killed one year ago today, June 2, 1953.
His smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each
And was loved by all.
Someday we hope to meet him,
Someday, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land
Never to part again.

Toll Men Told

Greenwich, Conn., (AP) — The State Highway Department sent a bill for 60 cents to the Town of Greenwich. It covered six trips at 10 cents each made through the Merritt Parkway toll gate by Greenwich police cars and a fire truck responding to emergencies. The highway department said only state-owned vehicles are exempt from the toll. Greenwich officals retorted it's going to be a long time before the town pays the 60 cents. "It isn't the money; it's the principle of the thing," asserted Greenwich First Selectman C. Carlton Gisborne.

Four Enlistments Listed for May

Two enlistments in the army and two in the air force have been announced by Sgt. 1/c Clarence H. Carney of the local recruiting station on the third floor of city hall.

They are Edward H. Steeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Steeger of 117 Fair street, Lee Roy Halwick, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. August C. Halwick of 55 North Front street, Norwood R. Humphrey, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood R. Humphrey, Sr., of 9 East Pierpont street, and Vincent W. Van Bramer, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Bramer of Port Ewen. Steeger and Van Bramer enlisted in the army and Halwick and Humphrey in the air force.

Steeger is a graduate of Kingston High School, class of 1942. After graduation he enlisted in the navy where he served as a radar technician. Upon leaving the navy in 1946 he enlisted in the National Guard, rising to the rank of second lieutenant in the communications section of Headquarters Battery, 156th Field Artillery Battalion, of which he was a member when he enlisted in the regular army. He has attended communications and field artillery schools at Fort Sill, Okla. He is a former employe of the Kingston Daily Freeman. Steeger is now stationed at Fort Dix, N. J.

Halwick is a graduate of Cornwall High School and before enlisting was employed at the Cities Service Gas Station, corner of Franklin and Broadway. He is taking boot training at Sampson AFB, Geneva.

Humphrey is a former member of Headqaurters Battery, 156th Field Artillery Battalion, New York National Guard. He attended Kingston schools. He is now at Sampson AFB for boot training.

Van Bramer enlisted with a school contract for finance procedures, a 12-week course at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. He is now at Fort Dix, N. J., for training. He is a graduate of Kingston High School and was employed by Morris Hymes, North Front street.

Other area men enlisting in the army and air force during May: Carl F. O'Connor, New Paltz; Donald I. Hasbrouck, New Paltz; Gerald M. Avery, Tillson; Joseph P. Casscels, Marlborough, and Leonard Wynkoop, Jr., Ellenville.

238 Risks Ousted

Washington, June 2 (AP) — The Department of Health, Education and Welfare says that by April 30 it had fired or otherwise eliminated 238 security risks—including 114 suspected subversives. The total, reported to Congress in testimony released today, superseded the Civil Service Commission's report last March that the Welfare Department had uncovered 78 security risks.

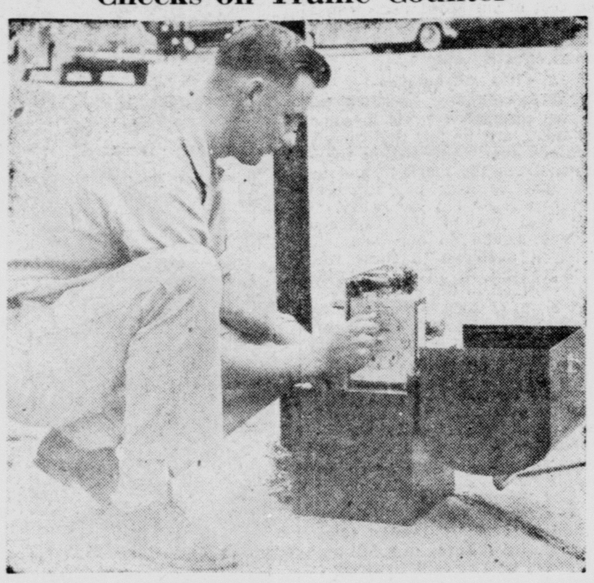

Weather Drama

Grand Rapids, Mich. (AP)—Announcer Tom Van Tol was giving a daily newscast over Radio Station WGRD. He was soothing jittery listeners that no tornado threatened the area. "There is no tornado in this area," he was saying. "I repeat, don't worry, you are in no . . ." and at that point silence. Lightning had hit the station's transmitter causing a power failure. A half-hour later the listeners weren't the only nervous persons in Grand Rapids. WGRD's switchboard operators worked up a sweat explaining what happened.

Heavily Populated

Checks on Traffic Counter

Traffic counters placed by the city indicated a heavy holiday flow through the city. Here Frank McMahon, of the city engineer's department, checks on one a short distance from Broadway on East Chester street.

Whitfield

Whitfield, June 2—Archie Hall Davis, who has been in South America for a year, is now with his wife and family here.

Gaylord Marshall is spending a few weeks at Caynon Lakes Farms with his sisters, Mrs. Josephine Curry and Miss Bell Marshall.

Mrs. Mae Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Arthur G. Davis spent Monday in Kingston.

Mrs. Rose Hornbeck is ill at her home.

Mrs. Burton Marshall and two sons left Monday to visit her mother in Illinois.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons entertained a number of house guests during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kelder and daughter, Sandra, spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelder in Kingston.

Would Strip Pellegrino

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The Justice Department has ordered proceedings to strip citizenship from Rocco Pellegrino, described as a White Plains, N. Y., racketeer. Pellegrino, 66, is a native of Catona, Italy. He first came to this country in 1905 and was naturalized in 1945. The department said yesterday it is basing its denaturalization move on charges that he concealed or misrepresented facts concerning a criminal record and certain absences from the United States which if disclosed would have made him ineligible for naturalization. The department said Pellegrino has a criminal record dating back to 1913.

Police Are Praised For Efficiency In Handling Traffic

Police Chief Raymond VanBuren and the police department received letters and phone calls of commendation for the handling of local traffic over the holiday weekend, and among them was one from Mayor Frederick H. Stang, it was learned today.

City Engineer Arthur F. Hallinan also noted that traffic appeared to move better through the city over the weekend than in former years, and because of this some observers felt that the traffic flow was lighter.

Instead, he noted, counters placed at various points in the city recorded an increase of 37 per cent over the 1953 flow of traffic for the holiday.

A 12-hour count (from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.) at the Wurts street side of the Rondout creek bridge, he said, was 11,655 this year and 8,506 last year, the hourly count being 971 this year against 709 last year.

16,898 at Viaduct

The count at the Washington avenue viaduct was 16,898 against 11,115 last year on the 12-hour basis. The hourly count of vehicles per hour was 926 with an estimated probable peak of 1,358 vehicles an hour.

The Vehicle-per-hour count at the East Chester by-pass was 423 in 1953 and 346 this year, indicating a drop in travel there. Another drop was noted on Albany avenue near the city line where the count this year per hour was 440 and last year was 536. The Boulevard (Route 32) and Route 9W were heavily travelled, as well as the thruway, he indicated.

Mayor Writes Letter

Mayor Stang's letter to Police Chief Van Buren and the department's patrolmen, said:

"Please let me express my deep appreciation for the splendid job done by all of you over the week-end, especially in connection with the Memorial Day parade.

"I ereceived many favorable comments, and the traffic situation was handled expeditiously and courteously. Keep up the good work."

Among moves which helped prevent congestion in the city was the shutting off of the thruway at Saugerties from 3 to 5 p. m., Sunday during the local parade.

Financial and Commercial

By RADER WINGET

New York, June 2 (AP)—The stock market edged ahead a little in the early afternoon today despite considerable irregularity in the movement of prices.

Both gains and losses went to around a point, with the gains predominating in most major divisions.

Trading was moderate. No selling pressures developed along the way. Business was at a pace right around yesterday's 1,850,000 shares when the market was advancing.

Higher with the aircrafts were the non-ferrous metals and utilities. Railroads were irregularly lower. Steels were mixed.

Drivers Change Minds In City Court Today

A collision of a taxi and a panel truck at Albany and Clinton avenue this morning resulted in the arrest of one driver by the other for allegedly passing a red traffic signal.

Officers George F. Dohnken and Special Gilbert Gray reported at 7:20 a. m., that the panel truck of Harry Beck, 56, of 39 Emerson street was headed east on Pearl street into Albany avenue and the taxi driven by LeRoy Hamilton, 37, of 11 Wurts street, was headed north on Clinton avenue. Both were damaged on the front, the report said.

Each driver withdrew the charge of passing a red light when they appeared later today before City Judge Raymond J. Mino.

Deer Killed on Fence

A young buck deer, which apparently had tried a leap over the fence around St. Mary's Cemetery was found impaled on its metal prongs on the Flatbush avenue side. William Martini, an employe of the Empire Diner, notified police at 5:40 a. m., that he and another man had found the animal dead on the fence. Officer George Dohnken and Special Officer Gilbert Gray investigated and Game Warden Philip Gillen, was notified and removed it.

Socarras Indicted Again

New York, June 2 (AP)—Carlos Prio Socarras, ex-president of Cuba, was indicted again yesterday on charges of violating the Neutrality Act by conspiring to export war materials from the United States to Cuba. Socarras was named in sealed federal indictments with 16 others, including his former interior minister, Segundo Curti Messina.

Late Bulletin

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy said today his investigation subcommittee has information "alarming" beyond words about Communist infiltration of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and hydrogen and atom bomb plants.

McCarthy made the statement, without further elaboration, just before the noon recess in the 24th day of the Army-McCarthy hearings.

India Opposes Request

New Delhi, India, June 2 (AP)—India was reported today opposed to Thailand's request that the UN Security Council send special observers to check on the war in southeast Asia. An authoritative source said Prime Minister Nehru's government feels such a move might upset or interfere with the Geneva conference on the Far Eastern conflict.

Memoriam

In sad and loving remembrance of our darling son, Roscoe Perry, Jr., on his 7th birthday.
Happy Birthday in Heaven, dear.
Time has a magic for stealing away,
The heartache and sorrow that grieve us today.
And time has a magic that always keeps near,
The cherished remembrances of someone so dear.

Loving parents & sisters.
MR. & MRS. ROSCOE PERRY, SR.

Memoriam

In loving memory of Cpl. Vincent Yonta, who was killed one year ago today, June 2, 1953.
His smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each
And was loved by all.
Someday we hope to meet him,
Someday, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land
Never to part again.

Toll Men Told

Greenwich, Conn., (AP) — The State Highway Department sent a bill for 60 cents to the Town of Greenwich. It covered six trips at 10 cents each made through the Merritt Parkway toll gate by Greenwich police cars and a fire truck responding to emergencies. The highway department said only state-owned vehicles are exempt from the toll. Greenwich officals retorted it's going to be a long time before the town pays the 60 cents. "It isn't the money; it's the principle of the thing," asserted Greenwich First Selectman C. Carlton Gisborne.

Drivers Change Minds In City Court Today

A collision of a taxi and a panel truck at Albany and Clinton avenue this morning resulted in the arrest of one driver by the other for allegedly passing a red traffic signal.

Officers George F. Dohnken and Special Gilbert Gray reported at 7:20 a. m., that the panel truck of Harry Beck, 56, of 39 Emerson street was headed east on Pearl street into Albany avenue and the taxi driven by LeRoy Hamilton, 37, of 11 Wurts street, was headed north on Clinton avenue. Both were damaged on the front, the report said.

Each driver withdrew the charge of passing a red light when they appeared later today before City Judge Raymond J. Mino.

Deer Killed on Fence

A young buck deer, which apparently had tried a leap over the fence around St. Mary's Cemetery was found impaled on its metal prongs on the Flatbush avenue side. William Martini, an employe of the Empire Diner, notified police at 5:40 a. m., that he and another man had found the animal dead on the fence. Officer George Dohnken and Special Officer Gilbert Gray investigated and Game Warden Philip Gillen, was notified and removed it.

Socarras Indicted Again

New York, June 2 (AP)—Carlos Prio Socarras, ex-president of Cuba, was indicted again yesterday on charges of violating the Neutrality Act by conspiring to export war materials from the United States to Cuba. Socarras was named in sealed federal indictments with 16 others, including his former interior minister, Segundo Curti Messina.

Late Bulletin

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Sen. McCarthy said today his investigation subcommittee has information "alarming" beyond words about Communist infiltration of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and hydrogen and atom bomb plants.

McCarthy made the statement, without further elaboration, just before the noon recess in the 24th day of the Army-McCarthy hearings.

India Opposes Request

New Delhi, India, June 2 (AP)—India was reported today opposed to Thailand's request that the UN Security Council send special observers to check on the war in southeast Asia. An authoritative source said Prime Minister Nehru's government feels such a move might upset or interfere with the Geneva conference on the Far Eastern conflict.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Traces Tradition At Holiday Rites

Woodstock, June 2—Tracing the history of Memorial Day, the Rev. Olney E. Cook, speaker of the day at exercises at the Town Hall, prior to the parade to the cemetery, Monday morning, told how it began 85 years ago in the South with Southern ladies putting flowers on the graves of Civil War veterans. Taking his text from the Book of Timothy, quoting Paul, he refered to A Call to Remember. Memorial Day, which started with the Civil War, continued through the War of 1812, and has become an established tradition since World Wars 1 and 2. Although it originally started in April, it is now observed at the end of May.

"It is also a symbol of love and devotion," the Rev. Mr. Cook reminded, and he mentioned that as a boy he studied Barnes History, which told of the Civil War general who was offered $50,000 by the enemy, to which he answered: "Such as I have, you have not the money to buy me." This the Rev. Mr. Cook presented as an example of devotion. The placing of flowers on the graves also is a symbol of love, he said. "Memories shed light on the past, and the present and also shed light on the future, to guard against evil and recognize the good."

Included in the program at the Town Hall were vocal selections by Gladys Tandler, accompanied by Mrs. Leo Herbert, and songs by Reinald Matheson. Assemblyman Kenneth Wilson attended the ceremonies accompanied by Joseph Fitzsimmons, town supervisor.

As in past years, the impressive march to the cemetery was heightened by the music of the Woodstock School Band and the Zena School Band which was making its first appearance in a parade. Members of the Zena Band were: Richard Mellert, John Mellert, Herbert Vogel, William Beisele, Albert Holumzer, Jr., Jon Joy, Bonnie Kaiser, Carol and Stewart DeWitt and Michael Mayer.

Traffic was under the direction of Corporal Ray Dunn and Troopers Whiting and McCullum, and Constables Clarence Snyder and Charles Farley.

Village Pastor Celebrates 30th Year at Church

Woodstock, June 2 — Thirty years of service to his church and to his community by the Rev. Harvey I. Todd, were proclaimed Tuesday night by the chimes in the belfry of the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church, prior to ceremonies and a reception in honor of the minister and his wife. The surprise program had been planned by a committee headed by Lamonte V. Simpkins, members of the congregation and friends of the church. A large number of out-of-town guests attended, including members of the clergy and former classmates of the Rev. Mr. Todd's.

"Thirty years is a long time to think back," Simpkins recalled. "Although I was not a member of the congregation at that time, I remember the day you arrived in Woodstock. It was the day the fire siren sounded and in answering the call we found Leslie Elwyn's store in flames."

Simpkins related how in spite of warnings from the state troopers that there was danger of gasoline exploding, "a strange man helped to string the hose" assisting the late George Riseley and Simpkins. "Ever since that time Harvey Todd has been there to help, no matter who it is or where it is. Of these things the steel of friendship and service has been forged."

To which the Rev. Mr. Todd replied: "It takes fire to unite iron."

A bouquet of red roses was presented to Mrs. Todd by their grandchildren, Louise and Lawrence Todd. Donald Todd, the youngest grandchild, was present but did not participate in the ceremony. Petite, blonde Louise Todd wore a white ruffled dress and hat made by her mother, Mrs. Stephen Todd.

A full congregation paid enthusiastic tribute to their pastor of 30 years with a gift to the Rev. and Mrs. Todd from the Lydian Society, the congregation and friends of the church.

Included in the program was a duet, It Is Well With My Soul, sung by Charles Klothe and Mrs. Rhoda Klippel; a duet by Miss Donna Riseley and Curry Freer, Love Divine, Love Excelling; an accordion duet by Ellen and Elsie Ross; a duet, I Never Knew, sung by Alma Simpkins and Shaffer Vredenberg, and a solo, Bless This House, sung by Rolland Heermance, conductor of the Catskill Glee Club. A prayer was offered by the Rev. Alvin J. Neal.

The address of the evening was given by the Rev. F. Alvin Langwith, pastor of the Annandale Reformed Church, Annandale, N. J., and brother-in-law of the Rev. Mr. Todd, who attended the ceremonies 30 years ago when he became affiliated with the Woodstock church.

Praises Cleric

"There is always a reason for a gathering of this sort, and many have traveled great distances to attend—members of the clergy and friends," the Rev. Mr. Longwith said. "This is not a world-shattering record, but there are not many 30-year pastorates. It's a grand occasion. It speaks eloquently for good common sense exercised on both sides."

"There are no rules to govern the length of a pastorate," the Rev. Mr. Langwith continued, "but roots do not go deep in five years—a man must have a chance to know his people, in their homes and in their work. You can see, after 30 years, the generations unfold before you." He spoke of the share of responsibility to be borne by the congregation as well. "When we all are carrying the loads, we have added strength and momentum."

In the concluding speech, the Rev. Mr. Todd said that he had "never seen a congregation work together in such close unity as this one has. It's been a happy 30 years."

The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. William R. Peckham.

Support Is Urged For Palsy Funds

Woodstock, June 2 — Thomas Dendy, chairman of the Cerebral Palsy drive for funds in this village, once more urges residents to contribute at least $1 per family, or person. The campaign ends June 10, and Dendy and his committee are anxious to see it go ever the top this year.

Ed Swenson, of the Woodstock Branch of the Bank of Orange County, who is serving as treasurer of the drive, has sent out receipts for funds already received, at the expense of the bank. A total of 1,380 letters have been mailed to residents making a plea for only $1 per person or family. Dendy would also like to remind villagers that 70 per cent of the funds received will remain in Ulster county to support the Kingston clinic.

There are a number of volunteers in Kingston and the surrounding area who provide transportation to and from the clinic for children. Women who would like to volunteer for this service are asked to communicate with Mrs. Charlotte Peck at the Kingston clinic.

It is urged that Woodstock establish a leading place in the state in raising funds for this project. The need is great. Checks or cash may be sent to Swenson at the Woodstock Bank.

Large Audience Sees Variety Show

Woodstock, June 2—Highlighting the Memorial Day weekend, a lively variety show for the benefit of the Parent-Teacher Association, was presented Saturday night at the Woodstock School. As an affable master of ceremonies, Dan Wallingford opened the show with a number recently performed in the Woodstock School minstrel show, After You've Gone, with Konrad King and dancing girls, Pixie Mecklem, Sandra Locke, Carol Ann Hefty, Jean Wilson and Sheila Russell, followed by a spirited Swedish Folk Dance by the second and third grade pupils.

Barbara Moncure sang an appealing group of folk songs, Torie on His Bonnet, Bridget, Croodindoo, and Lament for Roger Lee, and was followed by the rhythmic accordion trio, Allah's Holiday, played by Clem Nessel and the Ross Twins.

Richly blended voices were heard in the group of songs by the Woodstock Choral Group, under the direction of Bernice Schlemowitz, accompanied by Alice Dunbar and Dave Donaldson, flutes, and Alice Johnson, cello in Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze. They also sang Au Jolie Bois, April Is in My Mistress' Face and Tumba Dance. Mel Leshen contributed an amusing version of a Liberace piano performance, complete with candelabra, and trick dress suit.

Magic was contributed by Dr. Benjamin Pressman, and a Gay Nineties trio provided an amusing musical interlude in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wallingford, banjoists, and Earl Winslow, the clown playing the harmonica.

A musical duet was presented by Gladys Tandler, soprano, and Christiane Nazzi, flutist, accompanied by Verna Herbert, in The Wren, and in Miss Tandler's singing of Love Is Where You Find It.

A capacity audience enthusiastically applauded the show, which was under the direction of Mrs. Leo Herbert.

Mrs. Parker Closing Land to the Public

Woodstock, June 1—Mrs. Zulma S. Parker has explained that she is closing her land to the public, along the Saugerties road which includes the so-called Big Deep.

For over 25 years Mrs. Parker has allowed the children of this village, Sunday school pupils, Scouts and children's camps to swim and picnic there, as well as her personal friends on request.

Now, Mrs. Parker has pointed out, the situation is somewhat difficult. With the exception of a small tract, the land has been sold and has become a residential section for a number of attractive homes. In consequence this is no longer an outlying wooded area, but a place where her friends and neighbors have sought quiet surroundings for themselves as well as Mrs. Parker.

With the various pools that are privately owned and the Country Club, the Motel pool, and the Recreation Field pool, Mrs. Parker does not feel that the children will be deprived of a place to swim; and with the Woodstock Water System, showers and garden sprays are available as never before in the "bowl and pitcher days."

So Mrs. Parker is posting the property and asking the public to understand and cooperate by not trespassing on the privately owned property.

Village Notes

Woodstock, June 1—Heywood Hale Broun, who will appear in several productions at the Woodstock Playhouse, this summer, appeared recently on the Mr. Peepers TV show NBC, Channel 4. Broun's name was among those featured players whose names were flashed upon the screen.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Beer arrived at their home on Glasco Turnpike for the summer.

Mrs. Plochmann Is Midwest Winner

Woodstock, June 1 — Carolyn Gassan Plochmann, wife of Dr. George Kimball Plochmann of Woodstock and Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill., has been named midwest winner of a national art contest, sponsored by Tupperware Home Parties, Inc., Orlando, Fla. The award is $2,400, one of three presented in Chicago, New York and San Francisco. The judges were Louis Ritman of Chicago, Frederick Sweet, curator of American Art at the Art Institute of Chicago and Ernest Fiene of New York.

Mrs. Plochmann also is having an exhibition of her paintings and drawings at the Art Mart Gallery, Clayton (St. Louis), Mo., from June 4 to July 8.

Teaches Art Design

Born in Toledo, O., in 1926, Mrs. Plochmann was awarded first prize in the Toledo Federation Show, 1952. She is an honor graduate of DeVilbiss High School, and teaches at the Toledo Museum of Art School of Design. In 1947 she was graduated with honors from Toledo University and was special prize scholar from Toledo Museum for study at the State University of Iowa graduate school. She received her MFA degree in 1949, and was supervisor of art at the University school, Southern Illinois University. She received highest honors in 1950 at the Toledo Federation Show, and is an exhibiting member of the Woodstock Artists Association. Among her prizes is one received from Ohio Valley Oil and Water Color Show and the purchase prize of the Butler Art Institute.

In 1952 Mrs. Plochmann had a one-man show at the Southern Illinois University Allyn Art Gallery and her work was included in the Missouri Annual Show, and the Butler Art Institute Annual Show in 1953 the same year she painted a mural for the North Side Bank, Evansville, Ind. In 1954, her work was included in the Ohio Valley Show by invitation.

Tobias Sportsmen To Have New Rules

Woodstock, June 1—A copy of the by-laws of the Mt. Tobias Sportsmen's Club was distributed to all directors, officers and members of the club to be returned for final approval at the next meeting.

The land posting committee reported that 500 signs had been placed in the area. A report had been received that some of the signs had been defaced or torn down. No action will be taken, it was announced, but the signs will be replaced.

The club has received a quick claim deed from the Onteora Central School District 1, dated May 21, 1954, on the old School District 5, school house and property on the Mink Hollow Road.

As of the last meeting the club has an additional 25 new members, bringing the total membership to 175. The latest honorary member is Emil Angell, of Babylon, Long Island.

It was announced that when the club is established in the new clubhouse, that an auxiliary will be formed, and it is planned that the auxiliary, the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts and any other organization within the territory may participate in the use of the club.

The next meeting will be June 21, at the new club house.

Card Party Saturday

Woodstock, June 1—There will be a card party at the Zena Country Club, Saturday, June 5, at 8:15 p. m., sponsored by the Mother's Club of the Zena School for the benefit of the Zena School Band.

Traces Tradition At Holiday Rites

Woodstock, June 2—Tracing the history of Memorial Day, the Rev. Olney E. You can see, after 30 years, the generations unfold before you." He spoke of the share of responsibility to be borne by the congregation as well. "When we all are carrying the loads, we have added strength and momentum."

In the concluding speech, the Rev. Mr. Todd said that he had "never seen a congregation work together in such close unity as this one has. It's been a happy 30 years."

The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. William R. Peckham.

Support Is Urged For Palsy Funds

Woodstock, June 2 — Thomas Dendy, chairman of the Cerebral Palsy drive for funds in this village, once more urges residents to contribute at least $1 per family, or person. The campaign ends June 10, and Dendy and his committee are anxious to see it go ever the top this year.

Ed Swenson, of the Woodstock Branch of the Bank of Orange County, who is serving as treasurer of the drive, has sent out receipts for funds already received, at the expense of the bank. A total of 1,380 letters have been mailed to residents making a plea for only $1 per person or family. Dendy would also like to remind villagers that 70 per cent of the funds received will remain in Ulster county to support the Kingston clinic.

There are a number of volunteers in Kingston and the surrounding area who provide transportation to and from the clinic for children. Women who would like to volunteer for this service are asked to communicate with Mrs. Charlotte Peck at the Kingston clinic.

It is urged that Woodstock establish a leading place in the state in raising funds for this project. The need is great. Checks or cash may be sent to Swenson at the Woodstock Bank.

Large Audience Sees Variety Show

Woodstock, June 2—Highlighting the Memorial Day weekend, a lively variety show for the benefit of the Parent-Teacher Association, was presented Saturday night at the Woodstock School. As an affable master of ceremonies, Dan Wallingford opened the show with a number recently performed in the Woodstock School minstrel show, After You've Gone, with Konrad King and dancing girls, Pixie Mecklem, Sandra Locke, Carol Ann Hefty, Jean Wilson and Sheila Russell, followed by a spirited Swedish Folk Dance by the second and third grade pupils.

Barbara Moncure sang an appealing group of folk songs, Torie on His Bonnet, Bridget, Croodindoo, and Lament for Roger Lee, and was followed by the rhythmic accordion trio, Allah's Holiday, played by Clem Nessel and the Ross Twins.

Richly blended voices were heard in the group of songs by the Woodstock Choral Group, under the direction of Bernice Schlemowitz, accompanied by Alice Dunbar and Dave Donaldson, flutes, and Alice Johnson, cello in Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze. They also sang Au Jolie Bois, April Is in My Mistress' Face and Tumba Dance. Mel Leshen contributed an amusing version of a Liberace piano performance, complete with candelabra, and trick dress suit.

Magic was contributed by Dr. Benjamin Pressman, and a Gay Nineties trio provided an amusing musical interlude in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wallingford, banjoists, and Earl Winslow, the clown playing the harmonica.

A musical duet was presented by Gladys Tandler, soprano, and Christiane Nazzi, flutist, accompanied by Verna Herbert, in The Wren, and in Miss Tandler's singing of Love Is Where You Find It.

A capacity audience enthusiastically applauded the show, which was under the direction of Mrs. Leo Herbert.

Mrs. Parker Closing Land to the Public

Woodstock, June 1—Mrs. Zulma S. Parker has explained that she is closing her land to the public, along the Saugerties road which includes the so-called Big Deep.

For over 25 years Mrs. Parker has allowed the children of this village, Sunday school pupils, Scouts and children's camps to swim and picnic there, as well as her personal friends on request.

Now, Mrs. Parker has pointed out, the situation is somewhat difficult. With the exception of a small tract, the land has been sold and has become a residential section for a number of attractive homes. In consequence this is no longer an outlying wooded area, but a place where her friends and neighbors have sought quiet surroundings for themselves as well as Mrs. Parker.

With the various pools that are privately owned and the Country Club, the Motel pool, and the Recreation Field pool, Mrs. Parker does not feel that the children will be deprived of a place to swim; and with the Woodstock Water System, showers and garden sprays are available as never before in the "bowl and pitcher days."

So Mrs. Parker is posting the property and asking the public to understand and cooperate by not trespassing on the privately owned property.

Village Notes

Mrs. Plochmann Is Midwest Winner

Woodstock, June 1 — Carolyn Gassan Plochmann, wife of Dr. George Kimball Plochmann of Woodstock and Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill., has been named midwest winner of a national art contest, sponsored by Tupperware Home Parties, Inc., Orlando, Fla. The award is $2,400, one of three presented in Chicago, New York and San Francisco. The judges were Louis Ritman of Chicago, Frederick Sweet, curator of American Art at the Art Institute of Chicago and Ernest Fiene of New York.

Mrs. Plochmann also is having an exhibition of her paintings and drawings at the Art Mart Gallery, Clayton (St. Louis), Mo., from June 4 to July 8.

Teaches Art Design

Born in Toledo, O., in 1926, Mrs. Plochmann was awarded first prize in the Toledo Federation Show, 1952. She is an honor graduate of DeVilbiss High School, and teaches at the Toledo Museum of Art School of Design. In 1947 she was graduated with honors from Toledo University and was special prize scholar from Toledo Museum for study at the State University of Iowa graduate school. She received her MFA degree in 1949, and was supervisor of art at the University school, Southern Illinois University. She received highest honors in 1950 at the Toledo Federation Show, and is an exhibiting member of the Woodstock Artists Association. Among her prizes is one received from Ohio Valley Oil and Water Color Show and the purchase prize of the Butler Art Institute.

In 1952 Mrs. Plochmann had a one-man show at the Southern Illinois University Allyn Art Gallery and her work was included in the Missouri Annual Show, and the Butler Art Institute Annual Show in 1953 the same year she painted a mural for the North Side Bank, Evansville, Ind. In 1954, her work was included in the Ohio Valley Show by invitation.

Tobias Sportsmen To Have New Rules

Woodstock, June 1—A copy of the by-laws of the Mt. Tobias Sportsmen's Club was distributed to all directors, officers and members of the club to be returned for final approval at the next meeting.

The land posting committee reported that 500 signs had been placed in the area. A report had been received that some of the signs had been defaced or torn down. No action will be taken, it was announced, but the signs will be replaced.

The club has received a quick claim deed from the Onteora Central School District 1, dated May 21, 1954, on the old School District 5, school house and property on the Mink Hollow Road.

As of the last meeting the club has an additional 25 new members, bringing the total membership to 175. The latest honorary member is Emil Angell, of Babylon, Long Island.

It was announced that when the club is established in the new clubhouse, that an auxiliary will be formed, and it is planned that the auxiliary, the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts and any other organization within the territory may participate in the use of the club.

The next meeting will be June 21, at the new club house.

Card Party Saturday

Woodstock, June 1—There will be a card party at the Zena Country Club, Saturday, June 5, at 8:15 p. m., sponsored by the Mother's Club of the Zena School for the benefit of the Zena School Band.

Milestones of Progress in the world have brought about great changes, but unchanged is the principle on which STANDARD was founded, namely, service to our customers. And to serve you better each succeeding year is our firm intention.

In recent years we have expanded our facilities with one purpose in mind, to bring you better merchandise with better service at a lesser cost. Only your faith in us and our faith in the future has made this possible.

We are especially mindful of your loyal support, and it is our earnest desire and intentions to maintain the same high standards that you have so heartily approved in the past.

WE pledge our continued interest of all local community enterprises for the common good.

WE shall work to maintain your confidence in our store, the employees and the products we sell.

WE will stand behind the products we sell with a guarantee of satisfaction or your money refunded

WE will adhere as in the past to all the principles of good business and fairness to our customers.

WE are interested first in serving you and serving you properly to the best of our ability.

Montfort, Wis. (AP)—Wanted: a buyer for a weekly newspaper that has been in continuous publication for 54 years. There's one catch—all the type for the Montfort Mail has to be set by hand just as Rufus D. Quick, 77, the editor, has done since 1900. Quick said today that he was forced to suspend publication because of illness and now plans to sell the newspaper that serves this community of 550.

AT STANDARD... YOU CAN BUY WITH CONFIDENCE

For 53 years we've been in the furniture business—bringing to our good loyal customers the best values and the lowest prices to be found. We have sold what we advertised, delivered what we sold, serviced what de delivered. We believe in that policy—and judging from our continued growth, we know that you do too. We pledge ourselves to continue that policy—during this great 53rd. anniversary and for the years ahead.
Just as so many of you have been loyal customers, so too have the people whose faces appear on this page been good and loyal employees, many of them for 15, 20 and 30 years.

There is no charge for credit at Standard — because Standard carries its own accounts. You can purchase all your furniture on Credit at Cash Prices. You don't have to deal with banks or finance companies — there is no red tape — no embarrassment. Standard treats you fairly . . . squarely . . . honestly — so that there will always be greater Standards for better living.

Sincerely,

Highland

Highland, June 1—Miron Mihuka spent the holiday weekend at his home in Canajoharie.

The Misses Martha and Dorothy Churchill spent Sunday at their sisters in Boiceville.

Paul F. Samuels, a Poughkeepsie attorney and present State Commander of American Legion, will install the officers of Lloyd Post 193 at the meeting Wednesday night. Nicholas Marrone is the new commander succeeding Daniel Canora.

Chief William H. Maynard, Deputy Chief Frank Tortorella, Anthony Stellar and President Albert Roberts of the local fire company attended the testimonial dinner in Kingston for Fire Chief J. L. Murphy. The dinner was given by members of the County Volunteer Firemen.

2nd Lt. and Mrs. Ernest Dammier, New London, Conn., have spent a few days of this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson.

Mrs. Robert J. Commings visited her daughter Mrs. Clayton Stewart, Washingtonville, over the weekend. Mrs. Stewart is the former Miss Ethel Cummings and a teacher in the school at Highland Falls.

Robert Jennings, of the First National Bank has returned from a vacation spent in Mexico. He made the trip by plane.

The Thursday foursome met last week with Mrs. Charles C. Whittaker.

The meeting of the WSCS for June will be on June 11 in the Methodist Church parlor. The change was made necessary by a concert held in the school on the regluar date of June 4. There will be initiation of officers.

A member and former president of Chapter A, PEO, Mrs. Harold A. Lent, was elected state president at the annual convention in Garden City. She has been a member of the Sisterhood for 30 years and a member of the state board for five years. Chapter A, the first one in New York state and in the east, was founded in 1899 by Mrs. Harcourt J. Pratt, a native of Iowa who came here to live.

Mrs. Rose Seaman spent the weekend at the home of her son in Croton Falls.

Mrs. George Canfield and her sister have recently had a three weeks motor trip through the south.

Members attending the Queen Esther Club meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Ruby Kniffin made plans for sunshine work and a spring luncheon June 10 at Judie's. Mrs. Harry Weezenaar planned a quiz on many different subjects for entertainment.

Troy Cook gave the last in a series of Bible talks at the meeting of the Ganse Church School Society Thursday night with Mrs. Stanley Jones as hostess. The next meeting June 17 with Mrs. Edison Dimsey will be the annual birthday party of the society. The proceeds of the party will go toward sending a young person to the Institute held at Oakwood. One member, Mrs. James Phillips, has sailed on the Queen Elizabeth to visit her home land, England.

On June 4 at 8 p. m., several vocal groups of students in the Central School will present a concert in the school auditorium. There will be a large group of pupils in the fifth and sixth grades, the eighth grade general music class, the high school chorus, and a double quartet of boys who call themselves, The Young Lads. The concert is open to the public.

Frederick Bradshaw, an instructor at the Great Lakes Training School, has spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gedney.

Harry Palateer, Westmont, N. J. arrived Thursday and with his sister, Mrs. Alfred Lane visited their brother in Schenectady for the weekend.

Carl Hasbrouck, Montclair, N. J. spent Wednesday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. John F. Wadlin.

Mt. Tremper

Mt. Tremper, June 2 — Local hotels and boarding houses were filled to capacity for the Memorial Day weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuhose of Brooklyn and Mt. Tremper spent the weekend at their home on the Wittenberg road. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt of Queens stayed in the Schuhose cottage for the three days.

The former Hazel Lane of Mt. Pleasant visited her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Lane for the holiday. She is married and now resides at Endicott. Her brother, Vernal Lane, also was the guest of the local Lanes.

Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Velardi and daughter, Emily, drove from Mamaroneck to spend the weekend at their home here.

John Callaghan, Ernest Gardner, Lindsay Hoyt, Kenneth and Howard Umhey attended the stock car races at Rhinebeck Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stemmer spent the weekend at their home on the Wittenberg road.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Heller and son, Richard, motored from Brooklyn to their home here for the holiday.

Mrs. Barbara Messenger of Irvington, N. J., spent the holiday at her cottage here. Her sons, George and Fred Wilhelm, accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Friesendorf of Mendham, N. J., and this village, spent three days at their home on the Witenberg road.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Hasbrouck drove from East Orange, N. J., to weekend at their home on the Wittenberg road.

Miss Veronica Harrison of New York and the Willow road visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison for the holidays.

The meeting of the Onteora P-TA News staff, originally scheduled for Wednesday night, has been changed to Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Withers spent the holidays at their apartment on the Onteora Trail. Mrs. Withers is the former Mildred Cunningham, daughter of Mrs. Emma Cunningham. Mr. Withers is an excavation inspector for the City of New York. He plans to start building a home here in the near future and will construct it on weekends and during his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lutz of Glendale spent the weekend with their five children at their summer home on Umhey Mountain.

The regular monthly meeting of the Community Association of Mt. Tremper and Mt. Pleasant, Inc. will be held in the former schoolhouse Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McGill and daughter, Lynn, of East Orange, N. J., were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Hasbrouck.

Charles Steixner of New York visited his mother, Mrs. Rose Steixner, for the three days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schlegel also spent the weekend at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman North were the weekend guests of his parents in West Shokan. Mrs. North is the former Barbara Odenwald of Brooklyn and Mt. Tremper.

Montfort, Wis. (AP)—Wanted: a buyer for a weekly newspaper that has been in continuous publication for 54 years. There's one catch—all the type for the Montfort Mail has to be set by hand just as Rufus D. Quick, 77, the editor, has done since 1900. Quick said today that he was forced to suspend publication because of illness and now plans to sell the newspaper that serves this community of 550.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Be Careful, Avoid Foolish Errors

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

When today's hand was played in a recent match between England and Scotland, the South player at one table "blew" a cold game. Try playing the hand yourself, and see if you're tempted to make the same mistake.

West opened the ten of diamonds, and East won with the king. East now made an excellent shift to clubs, and South won with the ace. Declarer proceeded to draw three rounds of trumps ending in the dummy, and took the heart finesse, losing to West's king.

Would you play it the same way up to this point? If so, you'd better have an alibi ready because you're going to go down.

West took the heart finesse with the king and led the queen of clubs, forcing out declarer's last trump. Dummy still had a losing club and a losing diamond, and there was no way to prevent the loss of four tricks.

It's quite all right to draw three rounds of trumps, but there is no excuse for taking the heart finesse immediately. South must lead a diamond to knock out the ace.

If the opponents return clubs, the best defense, South ruffs with his last trump and cashes the queen of diamonds in order to discard dummy's last club. It is then easy to cash the ace of hearts and lead a heart towards dummy, giving up one trick in the suit. By this line of play, declarer loses only one heart and two diamonds—and no clubs.

Shokan

Shokan, June 2—Business callers in the hub of the reservoir country Friday included Gus Cunavales, Kingston War 2 veteran who has been spending some time in the Albany area.

Samuel Elefant of Brooklyn spent Thursday with his son, Joseph, and family of the Onteora Trail.

Local traffic observers are generally agreed that the number of cars using the trail and reservoir roads during the holiday was the largest ever seen here at this time of the year. The Old Timer, who likes to ponder the reason why for everything, opines the unusual traffic surge resulted from the combination of perfect weather, more cars in use, and a general desire to seek the great open spaces following a month of gloomy weather.

Anita Philips, who recently opened her summer home on Plochmann Lane in Woodstock, was a caller in the village center Friday. Mrs. Philips plans to occupy her house which she rented to others last year.

James Carpenter and brother, Thomas of Richmond Hill, accompanied by their brother-in-law, Patrick Kelly of Inwood, motored here Friday and spent the weekend at the Loos bungalow along the Ridge road. Jim and Tom put the family fishing boat in condition for summer use and Pat did some exterior painting for Mrs. Loos who is his wife's sister-in-law.

Other Richmond Hill residents in town for the holiday included Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Every, formerly of Ulster county, who were at their place in the VanSteenburgh Lane sector of Shokan, and Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Miller, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin VanSteenburgh and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sickler.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Farrell who moved here from Long Island several years ago after buying the one time George Hogan home from the Thord Fredenholms, plan to sell their local property with a view to returning to the metropolitan area where they have six grown children and 15 grandchildren.

Helium will neither burn nor explode.

Why We Say--

It may be an insult to lefthanded people, but the word awkward was coined as a description of lefthandedness. The meaning of "awk" formerly was lefthanded . . . thus anyone who primarily used his left hand was considered "awkward."

Transit Authority Agree To Reconsider Case

New York, June 2 (AP)—The New York Transit Authority has agreed to reconsider actions which last week touched off the threat of a strike against city-owned subway, bus and elevated lines.

The authority, a semi-independent body set up by the state last year to operate the deficit-ridden transit system, turned down major recommendations of a fact-finding board. The authority declined to sign any labor union contract, saying it was not legally able to do so.

A promise to review this stand was announced yesterday after the authority's five members met with Mayor Robert F. Wagner who is seeking to avert a transit tieup.

Earlier, the mayor met with representatives of the CIO Transport Workers Union, which represents 34,000 of the transit system's 44,000 employes and has set June 14 as a strike date.

The union declared it will carry out the strike unless the authority agrees to bargain collectively and signs a contract with the union.

The mayor appealed to both sides in the dispute to "do their utmost to be reasonable."

Language Handicap

Des Moines (AP)—After lots of effort, Latin students at Callanan Junior High School here had to give up in their efforts to translate the song title, "Beer Barrel Polka," into the language of the ancient Romans. The difficulty was that the students could find no Latin word for beer, barrel or polka. Closest the young scholars could come was "Wine Cask Dance."

POP — Paul Hoffman is the 1954 "Father of the Year." He was chosen by the National Father's Day Committee because of his "rare statesmanship and the active part he has taken in promoting peace at home and abroad." He is former head of the Economic Administration. The 1954 "Father" has seven children.

More Room for Records

St. Louis, June 2 (AP)—A new $12,555,750 military personnel records center, now 20 per cent completed, will have more usable floor space than the Empire State Building. The center—which will house 38 million records of servicemen separated from all branches of the service since 1912—is expected to be completed in October, 1955. It is located in suburban Overland. The Army Corps of Engineers said yesterday the Empire State Building has gross usable floor space of 1,125,000 square feet while the new six-story military building will have 1,240,000 square feet of space.

First time a steamboat was run in the open ocean was in 1809, by John Stevens.

Emperor Concludes Visit

New York, June 2 (AP)—Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie winds up his New York visit today after receiving an honorary degree from Columbia University and attending a dinner given for him by the Council of Foreign Relations. Before going to Columbia for his doctor of laws degree, the Emperor was slated to tour Rockefeller Center. Tomorrow Selassie and his party—which includes his son, Prince Sahle, and his granddaughter, Princess Sebla Desta—leave for a six-week tour of the United States, Canada and Mexico. Yesterday the African monarch visited the United Nations after an official welcome from the city and a parade through lower Manhattan.

Albany Man Appointed

Albany, June 2 (AP) — Louis Karell of Albany today was appointed head of a New York State Social Welfare Department unit that will register charity solicitors.

Rosendale

Rosendale, June 2—Plans by the Rosendale-Tillson American Legion Post to complete the flooring of its new quarters, has made it necessary to postpone the plans for dedication ceremonies until July 4. It was originally planned to have county, state and national officials attend a dedication ceremony Memorial Day.

August Backert was elected commander of the Rosendale-Tillson Post, American Legion, at the regular meeting May 20. Other officials elected to office include Charles George, first vice commander; Vito DeBenenditto, second vice commander; Stephen Reposky, third vice commander; Daniel J. McMonagle, adjutant; Dr. Morris Kushin, finance officer; Louis Mastro and John Tyler were elected delegates to the county committee, with Dr. Kushin and Wilfred Doolittle as alternates. John Tyler was elected service officer, the Rev. Albert H. Shultis, chaplain; Joseph Murat and Peter LoBello, executive committee; Wilfred Doolittle, sergeant-at-arms, and Gabriel Brancato, historian. The Rev. Mr. Shultis has donated an American flag to the Post, which will be raised on the flag pole to be erected by the new quarters. The Post will also sponsor a Boy Scout Troop, to be formed by William Tyler of LeFever Falls. Anyone in this area have lounge or straight chairs who wishes to donate them to the Post may contact any of the officials.

It has been announced that $118 was realized on the special Cerebral Palsy benefit shoot sponsored May 23 by the Rosendale Sportsmen's Association in Tillson. The committee expressed satisfaction in the results, inasmuch as the afternoon weather caused many to leave. The shoot was under the direction of Herman Osmers, Holger Rask, Vincent Steeley, James Guerreri, Edward Whitaker and Arthur Williams.

The Rosendale Grange will sponsor a card party at the hall Wednesday June 2, starting at 8 p. m.

Plans are underway for an auction to be sponsored by the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's Church June 26, starting at noon. Fred Palmatier will act as the auctioneer. The auction will be held in St. Peter's school hall.

Mrs. Tracy Keator of Amsterdam visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Keator in Tillson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Webb of Stone Ridge were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Keator.

Small Wanderer Found

Brewster, June 2 (AP)—A 3½-year-old boy, who wandered away from his farm home and was sought by posses for 12 hours, was found standing knee-deep in the Croton river at 7 a. m. today. The boy, Adam Farrell, apparently was unharmed by a 1½-mile hike and a night in the woods, his family and state troopers reported. The boy was found by two rural firemen, who were among a large force of state troopers, local officers and volunteers who searched woods and swamps through the night and early morning. The boy disappeared about 7 p. m. after playing near a barn on the family's farm at Deforest Corners, about 8 miles north of here.

Port Ewen Clinic

A child health conference conducted by the Ulster County Health Department will be held at the health center in Port Ewen June 9 from 3 to 5 p. m. These clinics are limited to infant and preschool children for the purpose of administering immunizations for smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough. These are well child clinics for the maintenance of health and prevention of disease, not for the care of the sick child.

POP — Paul Hoffman is the 1954 "Father of the Year." He was chosen by the National Father's Day Committee because of his "rare statesmanship and the active part he has taken in promoting peace at home and abroad." He is former head of the Economic Administration. The 1954 "Father" has seven children.

More Room for Records

St. Louis, June 2 (AP)—A new $12,555,750 military personnel records center, now 20 per cent completed, will have more usable floor space than the Empire State Building. The center—which will house 38 million records of servicemen separated from all branches of the service since 1912—is expected to be completed in October, 1955. It is located in suburban Overland. The Army Corps of Engineers said yesterday the Empire State Building has gross usable floor space of 1,125,000 square feet while the new six-story military building will have 1,240,000 square feet of space.

First time a steamboat was run in the open ocean was in 1809, by John Stevens.

Emperor Concludes Visit

New York, June 2 (AP)—Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie winds up his New York visit today after receiving an honorary degree from Columbia University and attending a dinner given for him by the Council of Foreign Relations. Before going to Columbia for his doctor of laws degree, the Emperor was slated to tour Rockefeller Center. Tomorrow Selassie and his party—which includes his son, Prince Sahle, and his granddaughter, Princess Sebla Desta—leave for a six-week tour of the United States, Canada and Mexico. Yesterday the African monarch visited the United Nations after an official welcome from the city and a parade through lower Manhattan.

Albany Man Appointed

Albany, June 2 (AP) — Louis Karell of Albany today was appointed head of a New York State Social Welfare Department unit that will register charity solicitors.

Rosendale

Rosendale, June 2—Plans by the Rosendale-Tillson American Legion Post to complete the flooring of its new quarters, has made it necessary to postpone the plans for dedication ceremonies until July 4. It was originally planned to have county, state and national officials attend a dedication ceremony Memorial Day.

August Backert was elected commander of the Rosendale-Tillson Post, American Legion, at the regular meeting May 20. Other officials elected to office include Charles George, first vice commander; Vito DeBenenditto, second vice commander; Stephen Reposky, third vice commander; Daniel J. McMonagle, adjutant; Dr. Morris Kushin, finance officer; Louis Mastro and John Tyler were elected delegates to the county committee, with Dr. Kushin and Wilfred Doolittle as alternates. John Tyler was elected service officer, the Rev. Albert H. Shultis, chaplain; Joseph Murat and Peter LoBello, executive committee; Wilfred Doolittle, sergeant-at-arms, and Gabriel Brancato, historian. The Rev. Mr. Shultis has donated an American flag to the Post, which will be raised on the flag pole to be erected by the new quarters. The Post will also sponsor a Boy Scout Troop, to be formed by William Tyler of LeFever Falls. Anyone in this area have lounge or straight chairs who wishes to donate them to the Post may contact any of the officials.

It has been announced that $118 was realized on the special Cerebral Palsy benefit shoot sponsored May 23 by the Rosendale Sportsmen's Association in Tillson. The committee expressed satisfaction in the results, inasmuch as the afternoon weather caused many to leave. The shoot was under the direction of Herman Osmers, Holger Rask, Vincent Steeley, James Guerreri, Edward Whitaker and Arthur Williams.

The Rosendale Grange will sponsor a card party at the hall Wednesday June 2, starting at 8 p. m.

Plans are underway for an auction to be sponsored by the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's Church June 26, starting at noon. Fred Palmatier will act as the auctioneer. The auction will be held in St. Peter's school hall.

Mrs. Tracy Keator of Amsterdam visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Keator in Tillson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Webb of Stone Ridge were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Keator.

Roosevelt Gets Delay

Pasadena, Calif., June 2 (AP)—Another week's delay has been granted James Roosevelt in answering a portion of the amended separate maintenance suit of his wife, Romelle, who accused him of cruelty and adultery. The latest postponement carries the case past the June 8 primary, in which Roosevelt seeks the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 26th district.

Wanted: A Better Hop

St. Louis (AP)—The Missouri Botanical Gardens has been awarded a $5,000 grant by the Brewing Industries Research Institute to make a study of the hop. Edgar Anderson, assistant director of the gardens, says there are three species of hops; the wild American, the Japanese and the common European. Many varieties exist and Anderson says the object of the research will be to find out the relationship they have to one another with the idea of developing improved types.

PITCHING HORSESHOES

BANANA OIL FOR DIOGENES' LAMP

Last month, in august conclave assembled, the dons of Columbia University made their annual Pulitzer Prize awards. By, large and for the most part, I think their selections were pretty good ones. I have, however, one serious beef. To wit and namely, that the dons decided to omit the award for fiction, presumably on the grounds that no piece of fiction dreamed up in America during 1953 rated the Pulitzer cash and kudos.

My answer to that decision is bosh and, likewise, balderdash. With pencil in hand and five minutes to kill by the clock, I have just listed 16 noteworthy examples of story-telling produced in this country last year.

Seeing as how the Pulitzer pundits have overlooked these gems, I have decided to make my own awards—the Billy Rose Gorgonzola Plaques—and hereby list what I consider the best pieces of fiction of 1953 . . .

1. The broad hint from certain quarters that Lavrenti Beria had escaped from Russia, was coming to Washington, and would testify before a Congressional subcommittee chaired by a certain junior Senator from Wisconsin.

2. The decision of the United States Supreme Court that big-league baseball is not a businesss.

3. The kiss-and-yell letters penned by one James Roosevelt of California.

4. The explanations offered by the 13 convicted Communists as to why they wouldn't trade their jail sentences for one-way tickets to Russia.

5. The touching statement by Christine Jorgensen, "I just want to be a normal girl."

6. The magazine article by J. B. Matthews "exposing" the Protestant clergy as "the largest single group supporting the Communist apparatus in the United States."

7. The brave words of Vice President Nixon who, on June 4 in Washington, walked into a lion's cage, patted a Leo on the head, and then said, "Honestly, I wasn't the least bit scared."

8. The speech by a Western Congressman in opposition to a bill to legalize the sale of shotguns in "country occupied by hostile or uncivilized Indians."

9. "The Strange Case of Alger Hiss" by Lord Earl Jowitt, ex-Lord High Chancellor of Britain, which conclusively proved Hiss wasn't guilty a couple of months before new evidence conclusively proved he was. (Brother Jowitt is a British citizen but, because of his mastery of the American art of the Tall Tale, I am waiving this technicality.)

10. The authoritative articles which prove that (a) cigarettes cause cancer, (b) cigarettes do not cause cancer.

11. Barbara Hutton's explanation that Mr. Rubirosa married her because "he loved her for herself alone."

12. Bernard M. Baruch's "admission" that, at 84, he is on the "threshold of old age." (He's been on a horse almost every day for the past six months in South Carolina, knocking down 20 quail with 20 shells.)

13. The sportsmanlike statements by our Davis Cup tennis players, Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas, when the Australians beat the pants off them.

14. The claims of the manufacturers of the 50-buck phonographs which are supposed to be "high fidelity."

15. The rationalizations of various politicos, Republicans and Democrats alike, as to why they went to Sing Sing prison to confer with a public-spirited citizen named Joey Fay.

16. The announcement by Senator John W. Bricker of Ohio in February 1953 that the military situation in Indochina was nothing to worry about and "outside our sphere of legitimate interest...."

So much for the 1953 award winners. Now I'd like to scoop the whole literary world and name the author of the best piece of fiction for 1954. As I see it, the hands-down winner has got to be either a certain junior Senator from Wisconsin or a certain Secretary of the Army.

It may well be, of course, that I'll have to split the prize money between the two of them.

Roosevelt Gets Delay

Pasadena, Calif., June 2 (AP)—Another week's delay has been granted James Roosevelt in answering a portion of the amended separate maintenance suit of his wife, Romelle, who accused him of cruelty and adultery. The latest postponement carries the case past the June 8 primary, in which Roosevelt seeks the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 26th district.

BANANA OIL FOR DIOGENES' LAMP

Last month, in august conclave assembled, the dons of Columbia University made their annual Pulitzer Prize awards. By, large and for the most part, I think their selections were pretty good ones. I have, however, one serious beef. To wit and namely, that the dons decided to omit the award for fiction, presumably on the grounds that no piece of fiction dreamed up in America during 1953 rated the Pulitzer cash and kudos.

My answer to that decision is bosh and, likewise, balderdash. With pencil in hand and five minutes to kill by the clock, I have just listed 16 noteworthy examples of story-telling produced in this country last year.

Seeing as how the Pulitzer pundits have overlooked these gems, I have decided to make my own awards—the Billy Rose Gorgonzola Plaques—and hereby list what I consider the best pieces of fiction of 1953 . . .

1. The broad hint from certain quarters that Lavrenti Beria had escaped from Russia, was coming to Washington, and would testify before a Congressional subcommittee chaired by a certain junior Senator from Wisconsin.

2. The decision of the United States Supreme Court that big-league baseball is not a businesss.

3. The kiss-and-yell letters penned by one James Roosevelt of California.

4. The explanations offered by the 13 convicted Communists as to why they wouldn't trade their jail sentences for one-way tickets to Russia.

5. The touching statement by Christine Jorgensen, "I just want to be a normal girl."

6. The magazine article by J. B. Matthews "exposing" the Protestant clergy as "the largest single group supporting the Communist apparatus in the United States."

7. The brave words of Vice President Nixon who, on June 4 in Washington, walked into a lion's cage, patted a Leo on the head, and then said, "Honestly, I wasn't the least bit scared."

8. The speech by a Western Congressman in opposition to a bill to legalize the sale of shotguns in "country occupied by hostile or uncivilized Indians."

9. "The Strange Case of Alger Hiss" by Lord Earl Jowitt, ex-Lord High Chancellor of Britain, which conclusively proved Hiss wasn't guilty a couple of months before new evidence conclusively proved he was. (Brother Jowitt is a British citizen but, because of his mastery of the American art of the Tall Tale, I am waiving this technicality.)

10. The authoritative articles which prove that (a) cigarettes cause cancer, (b) cigarettes do not cause cancer.

11. Barbara Hutton's explanation that Mr. Rubirosa married her because "he loved her for herself alone."

12. Bernard M. Baruch's "admission" that, at 84, he is on the "threshold of old age." (He's been on a horse almost every day for the past six months in South Carolina, knocking down 20 quail with 20 shells.)

13. The sportsmanlike statements by our Davis Cup tennis players, Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas, when the Australians beat the pants off them.

14. The claims of the manufacturers of the 50-buck phonographs which are supposed to be "high fidelity."

15. The rationalizations of various politicos, Republicans and Democrats alike, as to why they went to Sing Sing prison to confer with a public-spirited citizen named Joey Fay.

16. The announcement by Senator John W. Bricker of Ohio in February 1953 that the military situation in Indochina was nothing to worry about and "outside our sphere of legitimate interest...."

So much for the 1953 award winners. Now I'd like to scoop the whole literary world and name the author of the best piece of fiction for 1954. As I see it, the hands-down winner has got to be either a certain junior Senator from Wisconsin or a certain Secretary of the Army.

It may well be, of course, that I'll have to split the prize money between the two of them.

Wanted: A Better Hop

St. Louis (AP)—The Missouri Botanical Gardens has been awarded a $5,000 grant by the Brewing Industries Research Institute to make a study of the hop. Edgar Anderson, assistant director of the gardens, says there are three species of hops; the wild American, the Japanese and the common European. Many varieties exist and Anderson says the object of the research will be to find out the relationship they have to one another with the idea of developing improved types.

against the wall until they examine the opposite axiom that all rights are grants or loans from government. Where did the government get the rights which it dispenses?"

The New Deal Socialists are now sweeping into another large phase of their program, one concealed from the people as being too drastic when they began their assault on freedom. Now they tell us more and more boldly, we must accept the world leadership which Roosevelt compelled the British to relinquish. This will require fabulous amounts of money—so much that in this phase, our economic system and method of rewarding people for their work or ingenuity will have to be scrapped in favor of something more convenient. The Russians have the only other system.

Los Angeles, June 2 (AP)—U. S. Atty. Gen. Brownell, here to address a Pasadena YMCA dinner tonight, says no one has the right to act on his own authority, "as a vigilante." Brownell made the remark in reply to a reporter's question concerning Sen. Joseph McCarthy, (R-Wis.). He didn't mention McCarthy's name but he said he would "say it in my speech." "It is a serious matter for anyone to set himself up against the President," Brownell also told newsmen yesterday upon his arrival. Brownell speaks in Los Angeles tomorrow night.

Costly Jersey Fire Injures 125 Men

Edgewater, N. J., June 2 (AP)—A million dollar fire raged through a two-block area of this industrial community's waterfront yesterday, wrecking three warehouses, three old docks and almost 100 new cars.

Some 125 firemen were injured or overcome by smoke in fighting the blaze.

The fire started at 3:30 p. m. (EST), apparently in a warehouse in which rubber was stored by the Ford Motor Co. Firemen controlled the flames in about three hours.

A Ford spokesman said 95 to 100 new Lincoln and Mercury automobiles, awaiting export, were destroyed.

Also wrecked were two empty warehouses, three old raw sugar docks and Edgewater's civil defense headquarters on the municipal dock.

Fire Chief George Lasher made the overall damage estimate of about one million dollars. The Ford spokesman estimated damage to the cars at $250,000.

James Earley, agent for Dwight Hemsley, Inc., of New York, said it would cost two million dollars to replace the destroyed buildings and docks.

As Pegler Sees It

against the wall until they examine the opposite axiom that all rights are grants or loans from government. Where did the government get the rights which it dispenses?"

The New Deal Socialists are now sweeping into another large phase of their program, one concealed from the people as being too drastic when they began their assault on freedom. Now they tell us more and more boldly, we must accept the world leadership which Roosevelt compelled the British to relinquish. This will require fabulous amounts of money—so much that in this phase, our economic system and method of rewarding people for their work or ingenuity will have to be scrapped in favor of something more convenient. The Russians have the only other system.

Brownell Gives View

Los Angeles, June 2 (AP)—U. S. Atty. Gen. Brownell, here to address a Pasadena YMCA dinner tonight, says no one has the right to act on his own authority, "as a vigilante." Brownell made the remark in reply to a reporter's question concerning Sen. Joseph McCarthy, (R-Wis.). He didn't mention McCarthy's name but he said he would "say it in my speech." "It is a serious matter for anyone to set himself up against the President," Brownell also told newsmen yesterday upon his arrival. Brownell speaks in Los Angeles tomorrow night.

Costly Jersey Fire Injures 125 Men

Edgewater, N. J., June 2 (AP)—A million dollar fire raged through a two-block area of this industrial community's waterfront yesterday, wrecking three warehouses, three old docks and almost 100 new cars.

Some 125 firemen were injured or overcome by smoke in fighting the blaze.

The fire started at 3:30 p. m. (EST), apparently in a warehouse in which rubber was stored by the Ford Motor Co. Firemen controlled the flames in about three hours.

A Ford spokesman said 95 to 100 new Lincoln and Mercury automobiles, awaiting export, were destroyed.

Also wrecked were two empty warehouses, three old raw sugar docks and Edgewater's civil defense headquarters on the municipal dock.

Flames and smoke pouring from the scene were visible for miles around. The intense heat hampered firemen for some time.

Fire Chief George Lasher made the overall damage estimate of about one million dollars. The Ford spokesman estimated damage to the cars at $250,000.

James Earley, agent for Dwight Hemsley, Inc., of New York, said it would cost two million dollars to replace the destroyed buildings and docks.

IBM Plant No. 2, Poughkeepsie, Mixed Chorus To Give Concert at Fair Street Church

CHESTER A. DOLSON, JR.

DAYLE AUCHMOODY

The International Business Machines mixed chorus of Plant No. 2, Poughkeepsie, headed by Chester A. Dolson, Jr., president of the chorus, will present a concert at Fair Street Reformed Church, Thursday, at 8:15 p. m. Mr. Dolson is a former resident of Kingston.

Miss Dayle Auchmoody, former KHS choir soloist, will be heard as mezzo-soprano soloist with the chorus.

Mr. Dolson, who arranged to bring the chorus to Kingston for the first time, has been influential in the development of the musical organization at IBM. A graduate of Kingston High School, Mr. Dolson sang with the A Cappella Choir and is a former bass soloist with Fair Street Reformed Church choir. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Dolson of 716 Broadway.

Miss Auchmoody is familiar to Kingston audiences for her solo work with the Kingston High School A Cappella Choir in 1953. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale W. Auchmoody of 40 Vincent street, she received her early voice training with Leonard Stine, singing with the choir for three years.

The chorus is under the direction of William H. Dederer accompanied by James W. Henderson at the piano.

Miss Dolores Gillen, Sgt. Richard Houser Nuptials Are Held

Miss Dolores Mariea Gillen of 78 Cedar street, daughter of the late John and Hazel Gillen, became the bride of Sgt. Richard Robert Houser, USMC, of Floyd Bennett Field, Brooklyn, Sunday, May 30, at 2:30 p. m., at St. Joseph's Church. The Rev. John Keating performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Frank Rafferty played traditional wedding selections on the organ. Carnations and baby's breath formed the floral decorations in the church.

Given in marriage by her brother, Philip J. Gillen, the bride wore a gown of white organdy fashioned with a molded bodice, long tapered sleeves, and a Venise lace bertha. Her floor length bouffant skirt terminated in a brush train. A bridal cap of tulle and Venise lace secured her scalloped circular veil of French illusion. She carried a hand bouquet of white Marguerites and gladioli.

Irving Tucker, of High Falls was best man for his brother.

Following a reception at the Alpine for the immediate families, Mr. and Mrs. Houser left on a trip to New York city. They will make their home in Brooklyn.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston schools and Our Lady of Victory School of Nursing. She was on the staff of the Benedictine Hospital.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Mt. Vernon schools and has been with the Marine Corps for the past seven years.

SCAA to Hold Picnic For Foster Mothers At Hasbrouck Park

The Foster Mother's picnic, sponsored by State Charities Aid Association will be held Thursday, June 10, at Hasbrouck Park, it was announced by Mrs. Gifford Beal, president, at the regular meeting of the group May 25.

The drama department from New Paltz State Teachers College will present a short play at that time.

At a meeting of the association, held at Ulster County Home for the Aged, Edward E. Murray, commissioner of Public Welfare of Ulster county, spoke on the topic, Public Welfare Is Your Business. The Rev. J. Dean Dykstra, vicepresident of the association, presided.

Tracing the beginning from early Dutch settlement of this area, and the almshouses established by the Dutch Reformed Church for the aged, he said that the state entered the welfare picture directly after the Revolutionary War. Various forms of welfare were tried, and in 1872 State Charities Aid Association was formed, its objective to promote an active public interest in matters pertaining to public welfare.

Mr. Murray cited one purpose of democratic government, to assist those who need it most, to improve the condition of all, so that the average man may have a greater satisfaction in life.

To Present Budget To Onteora Voters

The Onteora Central School Board of Education has approved a budget of $624,265 for the year 1954-55 which will be presented to the voters at the annual school meeting Tuesday, July 13.

According to Lester Shultis, president of the board, "Onteora is probably the only, or one of the few schools throughout the entire state to offer a slight reduction in the tax rate. The board has worked hard to establish a tax level for the district. From now on we hope to bring about slight reductions in the rates each year."

The rates for 1953-54 and 1954-55 per $1,000 are listed as follows: Olive, $40.05 against $39.59 for 1954-55; Shandaken, $24.58 and $24.30; Woodstock $33.82 and $33.44; Marbletown, $21.43 and $21.19; Hurley, $15.61 and $15.43 and Lexington, $21.85 and $21.61.

The voters will also elect three board members to fill the vacancies of Fred D. Cure of Pine Hill, John Haggerty of West Shokan and Lester Shultis of Wittenberg, whose terms expire. Cure and Shultis have served on the board since 1948 and Haggerty since 1951.

Miss Dolores Gillen, Sgt. Richard Houser Nuptials Are Held

Miss Dolores Mariea Gillen of 78 Cedar street, daughter of the late John and Hazel Gillen, became the bride of Sgt. Richard Robert Houser, USMC, of Floyd Bennett Field, Brooklyn, Sunday, May 30, at 2:30 p. m., at St. Joseph's Church. The Rev. John Keating performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Frank Rafferty played traditional wedding selections on the organ. Carnations and baby's breath formed the floral decorations in the church.

Given in marriage by her brother, Philip J. Gillen, the bride wore a gown of white organdy fashioned with a molded bodice, long tapered sleeves, and a Venise lace bertha. Her floor length bouffant skirt terminated in a brush train. A bridal cap of tulle and Venise lace secured her scalloped circular veil of French illusion. She carried a hand bouquet of white Marguerites and gladioli.

Mrs. Audrey A. Frost of Hurley Heights was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a street length dress of white embroidered organdy over pink taffeta, and carried a hand bouquet of pink Marguerites and gladioli.

Irving Tucker, of High Falls was best man for his brother.

Following a reception at the Alpine for the immediate families, Mr. and Mrs. Houser left on a trip to New York city. They will make their home in Brooklyn.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston schools and Our Lady of Victory School of Nursing. She was on the staff of the Benedictine Hospital.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Mt. Vernon schools and has been with the Marine Corps for the past seven years.

Dance at St. Remy Will Benefit Palsy Campaign

A committee composed of Ed Eckert, chairman, of Rifton, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jordan, co-chairmen, of St. Remy, are planning to jointly sponsor a dance to be held at the St. Remy Firehall, Friday evening. Dancing, which will be from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m., will feature both old fashioned and modern dances.

The public is invited to support this event, which is being held in place of a house-to-house canvass for the Ulster County Cerebral Palsy campaign.

SCAA to Hold Picnic For Foster Mothers At Hasbrouck Park

The Foster Mother's picnic, sponsored by State Charities Aid Association will be held Thursday, June 10, at Hasbrouck Park, it was announced by Mrs. Gifford Beal, president, at the regular meeting of the group May 25.

The drama department from New Paltz State Teachers College will present a short play at that time.

At a meeting of the association, held at Ulster County Home for the Aged, Edward E. Murray, commissioner of Public Welfare of Ulster county, spoke on the topic, Public Welfare Is Your Business. The Rev. J. Dean Dykstra, vicepresident of the association, presided.

Tracing the beginning from early Dutch settlement of this area, and the almshouses established by the Dutch Reformed Church for the aged, he said that the state entered the welfare picture directly after the Revolutionary War. Various forms of welfare were tried, and in 1872 State Charities Aid Association was formed, its objective to promote an active public interest in matters pertaining to public welfare.

Mr. Murray cited one purpose of democratic government, to assist those who need it most, to improve the condition of all, so that the average man may have a greater satisfaction in life.

To Present Budget To Onteora Voters

The Onteora Central School Board of Education has approved a budget of $624,265 for the year 1954-55 which will be presented to the voters at the annual school meeting Tuesday, July 13.

According to Lester Shultis, president of the board, "Onteora is probably the only, or one of the few schools throughout the entire state to offer a slight reduction in the tax rate. The board has worked hard to establish a tax level for the district. From now on we hope to bring about slight reductions in the rates each year."

The rates for 1953-54 and 1954-55 per $1,000 are listed as follows: Olive, $40.05 against $39.59 for 1954-55; Shandaken, $24.58 and $24.30; Woodstock $33.82 and $33.44; Marbletown, $21.43 and $21.19; Hurley, $15.61 and $15.43 and Lexington, $21.85 and $21.61.

The voters will also elect three board members to fill the vacancies of Fred D. Cure of Pine Hill, John Haggerty of West Shokan and Lester Shultis of Wittenberg, whose terms expire. Cure and Shultis have served on the board since 1948 and Haggerty since 1951.

Newburgh Academy Beats Kingston High, 9-2, to Tie DUSO League

Short Pitches 4-Hitter, Fans Nine at NFA Field

Flock of Miscues Hurt Maroon Nine

It's tough enough to win a ball game when the opposing pitcher is hot. But when your own defenses collapse at the same time it can add up to nothing but disaster.

Such is the fate that befell Kingston High Tuesday, as its 8-game winning streak and chance for the DUSO baseball pennant was smeared, 9-2, by Newburgh Academy at the Hill City diamond.

The Kingston setback tied the two teams in the DUSO scramble and necessitates a playoff on a neutral diamond at Riverview Field in Poughkeepsie.

Short Fans Nine

Southpaw Billy Short was sharp and tough, yielding only four hits and striking out nine. It would have taken a Bruce Bechtold at his best to cope with the former Little League at the Goldbacks.

But Bechtold could not survive in the midst of Maroon errors, six in the record books and several more of omission that bring grief but are never recorded for posterity.

Newburgh blew the game wide open with seven runs in the third and Short didn't crack until the seventh when Kingston pushed across two runs. The Goldbacks made only five hits off Bechtold and Jack Houghtaling, who relieved him with one out in the third. All the hits on both sides were singles.

Ronnie Halsey Hurls 1-Hitter Fans 14 in ELL

Ronnies Halsey of the Esopus Little League Giants must be the kind of a pitcher Leo Durocher could use with the big Giants at the Polo Grounds.

The fireballing youngster became the first strikeout artist of the infant season yesterday, with a one-hit, 14-K, 5 to 2 triumph over the Dodgers.

Halsey didn't permit a hit after Richard Casey's firs inning single. In his own behalf he powered a single and double for two of the three hits off three Dodger flingers.

Highland Routs Kerhonkson, 7-1 On Two-Hitter

Highland High trounced Kerhonkson High, 7-1, yesterday behind the 2-hit pitching of Kurtz.

A three-run rally off Barley, the Kerhonkson starter, in the first inning gave Kurtz all the working margin he needed. He walked four and fanned five.

Highland had only five hits off Barley and John Mustion, one a solo homer by Jeannette in the fourth. Gersch slammed a pair of doubles for the winners.

Seers and D. Probst accounted for the two Kerhonkson safeties, both singles.

Classic Keglers Name Greenburg

Also elected with Greenburg were Bob Jones, vice-president; and Jake Chichelsky, secretary-treasurer.

Ronnie Mauro, retiring vice-president, was toastmaster at the banquet. John Ferraro, proprietor of the Bowlodrome, spoke and later presented his trophy to Amos Newcombe, sponsor of the league champions. Irwin J. Thomas, secretary of the Kingston Bowling Association, presented the KBA's belt buckle award to Joe Spadafora for his 258 single.

Members of the Newcombe Oilers who were feted, in addition to the sponsor, were Captain Greenburg, George Dunbar, Austin Hitchcock, Scott Vining, who was the Classic League president this year; Joe Spadafora and Ralph Whoolsey.

Southpaw Billy Short was sharp and tough, yielding only four hits and striking out nine. It would have taken a Bruce Bechtold at his best to cope with the former Little League at the Goldbacks.

But Bechtold could not survive in the midst of Maroon errors, six in the record books and several more of omission that bring grief but are never recorded for posterity.

Newburgh blew the game wide open with seven runs in the third and Short didn't crack until the seventh when Kingston pushed across two runs. The Goldbacks made only five hits off Bechtold and Jack Houghtaling, who relieved him with one out in the third. All the hits on both sides were singles.

Ronnies Halsey of the Esopus Little League Giants must be the kind of a pitcher Leo Durocher could use with the big Giants at the Polo Grounds.

The fireballing youngster became the first strikeout artist of the infant season yesterday, with a one-hit, 14-K, 5 to 2 triumph over the Dodgers.

Halsey didn't permit a hit after Richard Casey's firs inning single. In his own behalf he powered a single and double for two of the three hits off three Dodger flingers.

Highland Routs Kerhonkson, 7-1 On Two-Hitter

Highland High trounced Kerhonkson High, 7-1, yesterday behind the 2-hit pitching of Kurtz.

A three-run rally off Barley, the Kerhonkson starter, in the first inning gave Kurtz all the working margin he needed. He walked four and fanned five.

Highland had only five hits off Barley and John Mustion, one a solo homer by Jeannette in the fourth. Gersch slammed a pair of doubles for the winners.

Seers and D. Probst accounted for the two Kerhonkson safeties, both singles.

Classic Keglers Name Greenburg

Emil "Buddy" Greenburg, captain of this year's pennant-winning Newcombe Oil keglers, was elected president of the Ferraro Classic League for 1954-55 during the loop's annual banquet Tuesday night at Tommie's Tavern, High street.

Also elected with Greenburg were Bob Jones, vice-president; and Jake Chichelsky, secretary-treasurer.

Ronnie Mauro, retiring vice-president, was toastmaster at the banquet. John Ferraro, proprietor of the Bowlodrome, spoke and later presented his trophy to Amos Newcombe, sponsor of the league champions. Irwin J. Thomas, secretary of the Kingston Bowling Association, presented the KBA's belt buckle award to Joe Spadafora for his 258 single.

Members of the Newcombe Oilers who were feted, in addition to the sponsor, were Captain Greenburg, George Dunbar, Austin Hitchcock, Scott Vining, who was the Classic League president this year; Joe Spadafora and Ralph Whoolsey.

Braves' Buhl Succumbs To Winter Jinx

By BEN PHLEGAR
(AP Sports Writer)

Bob Buhl's efforts to duplicate his fine first year with the Milwaukee Braves to be stymied by the curse of the winter leagues.

A pleasant surprise as a freshman, a terror in Puerto Rico during the off season, the tall fast-balling righthander hasn't been able to buy a victory this season.

He lost his fourth straight last night, 2-0 to Brooklyn as the Dodgers continued their 1953 habit of being the only visiting club to win regularly in Milwaukee. The defeat cut the Braves' first place margin to four percentage points over Brooklyn.

Buhl came out of the minors and the army last year to post a 13-8 record. During the winter he blazed through Caribbean competition to the tune of 14 and 3.

Came major league spring training and Buhl was so far ahead of the hitters they couldn't get their bats off their shoulders fast enough to get a loud foul.

But with the start of the regular season his magic disappeared.

Buhl isn't the only winter league pitching sensation who has been having trouble. Four other top Caribbean stars have a combined major league record this year of 2-2.

Jack Harshman, 1-1 with the Chicago White Sox, had a 15-8 record in Puerto Rico. Dick Littlefield, 0-1 with Pittsburgh, was the busiest pitcher in Cuba with a 13-7 record. Ray Crone, 1-0 with the Braves, was 6-1 in Puerto Rico and Thornton Kipper, 0-0 with the Philadelphia Phillies, was 14-5 in Venezuela.

In the American League Philadelphia walloped Boston 16-6, New York defeated Washington 9-3 and Detroit edged Baltimore 4-3. Baltimore fell to last place.

Cox Sparks Dodgers

Billy Cox scored the two Brooklyn runs. He walked in the third inning and moved around on a sacrifice by Russ Meyer and a single by Pee Wee Reese. In the fifth he singled, was again moved to second by Meyer and scored on a single by junior Gilliam.

The Red Sox' three game winning streak was wrecked as the lowly Philadelphia Athletics battered the Bostonians all over Fenway Park. Gus Zernial hit his 10th and 11th homers and drove in six runs. Pitcher Bob Trice joined in the fun with a home run and double in winning his fifth game.

Bob Grim, the only rookie pitcher still with the Yankees, held Washington hitless through the last five innings as he scored his fifth success. Hank Bauer had a perfect afternoon, collecting three walks, a home run and a single and driving in four runs.

The Orioles chased Ralph Branca in the eighth inning but the former Brooklyn righthander won his third straight game for the Tigers. Detroit collected 10 hits off three Baltimore pitchers including a double and a single by Branca.

Mickey Astorga Gives Only 2 Hits, Fans 11 Batters

Yankees defeated the Dodgers, 10-7, and Giants won over the Indians, 9-5, in the Town of Esopus Little League 1954 openers at Ross Park in Port Ewen.

The Dodgers put all their eggs in one basket against the Yankees but the basket wasn't big enough.

After the losers went ahead 7-0 in the second, the Yankees scored five runs in the third and two in the fourth to tie the game at 7-7. They rallied for the winning runs in the top of the sixth.

Dailey stopped the Dodgers cold after relieving Christopher in the second. The Yankees collected eight hits off Terpening and Johnson, including two by Boss. Jones cracked a double and homer for the Dodgers. Charlie Brooks tripled for Yankees. Christopher, Reinhart, Phillips slammed doubles.

Dailey struck out nine batters in his relief stint.

One Big Inning

The Giants staged a 7-run rally in the second inning against the Indians.

Mickey Astorga pitched shutout ball for four innings but relaxed under a 9-0 lead and yielded five runs in the last two rounds. He allowed only two hits, one a triple by B. Brown, walked five and fanned 11.

The Dodgers collected but five hits off Carter and Tinney, including a double by Nembhart.

A large opening day crowd attended. Supervisor Ed Eckert threw out the first ball. Floyd Patterson, professional boxer training at the Wiltwyck School, was introduced.

Ebelheiser's Single Gives NPS 6-5 Win Over Danbury

Frank "Specs" Ebelheiser of Kingston drilled a 10th inning single to give New Paltz State Teachers a 6-5 triumph over Danbury Teachers (Conn.) at New Paltz.

Don Lyons, another KHS product, also figured in the rally which came with two outs.

Lyons touched off the rally with the first of three successive singles, after Cummings and Ellman made the first two outs. Christian and Ebelheiser followed with solo raps to nail down the victory.

Siegel Wins

Manny Siegel went all the way for the Orange, yielding nine hits, walking one and fanning seven. The winners made tight hits off Lo Stocca and Bielinski. The former started and was ejected for disputing a decision during New Paltz's four-run rally in the sixth.

Carr's double for Danbury was the only extra base blow of the contest. Lyons cracked two singles for the Ulsterites.

Look Out, Rocky Here Comes That Cockell Terror

London, June 2 (AP) — Don Cockell, British heavyweight champion who make a specialty of defeating Americans, flies to New York in two weeks to scout the Rocky Marciano-Ezzard Charles fight but he hopes it won't be the last he'll see of Rocky in a fight ring.

Most sensible men wouldn't be caught dead in a ring with Marciano.

But after his successes against Roland La Starza in March and against Harry Matthews last night, Cockell is eager to take a shot at Rocky and the world heavyweight crown. Last night's victory was more impressive than the Briton's split decision over Matthews last August in Seattle.

Whether the fat British champion gets a chance in September either here or in the United States will have to be worked out later—that is assuming Marciano takes Charles.

But one thing is sure, Cockell did himself and his Marciano project a lot of good in taking last night's 10-round decision from Matthews before a crowd of 35,000 at White City Stadium.

Carter 3-1 Choice To Defeat Riley

St. Louis, June 2 (AP)—Ex-lightweight champion Jimmy Carter of New York rules a 3-1 favorite to take the measure of Chillin' Charley Riley in their scheduled 10-round bout at the St. Louis Arena tonight.

Carter is expected to weigh 135 pounds and Riley 131.

Their televised fight (CBS at 10 p. m., EDT) has produced little excitement among fight followers here. A 135-pound limit, give or take a pound, was set for the bout.

Bud Marl Wins At Arlington

Bud Marl, the Pine Bush veteran, streaked to victory in the 25-lap car feature at Arlington Speedway.

Steve Danish of Troy was a close second, with Ted Seabiscuit and Herb Mason trailing in that order.

Heat winners included Hal McCarty, who copped the first and second; Bud Marl and Steve Danish. D. D. Harris won the consolation.

Westbury, June 2 (AP)—J.M.H. captured the $3,000 Hempstead Pace last night at Roosevelt Raceway with a hard-earned half-length victory over Bonnie Knight in 2:05.1.

Tom Walters drove the five-year old brown gelding for owner Edmund Harrington, of Felton, Del. Sir Joseph was third.

Although the favorite in the race, J.M.H. still returned $7.80, $4.30 and $3.90.

Braves' Buhl Succumbs To Winter Jinx

By BEN PHLEGAR
(AP Sports Writer)

Bob Buhl's efforts to duplicate his fine first year with the Milwaukee Braves to be stymied by the curse of the winter leagues.

A pleasant surprise as a freshman, a terror in Puerto Rico during the off season, the tall fast-balling righthander hasn't been able to buy a victory this season.

He lost his fourth straight last night, 2-0 to Brooklyn as the Dodgers continued their 1953 habit of being the only visiting club to win regularly in Milwaukee. The defeat cut the Braves' first place margin to four percentage points over Brooklyn.

Buhl came out of the minors and the army last year to post a 13-8 record. During the winter he blazed through Caribbean competition to the tune of 14 and 3.

Came major league spring training and Buhl was so far ahead of the hitters they couldn't get their bats off their shoulders fast enough to get a loud foul.

But with the start of the regular season his magic disappeared.

Buhl isn't the only winter league pitching sensation who has been having trouble. Four other top Caribbean stars have a combined major league record this year of 2-2.

Jack Harshman, 1-1 with the Chicago White Sox, had a 15-8 record in Puerto Rico. Dick Littlefield, 0-1 with Pittsburgh, was the busiest pitcher in Cuba with a 13-7 record. Ray Crone, 1-0 with the Braves, was 6-1 in Puerto Rico and Thornton Kipper, 0-0 with the Philadelphia Phillies, was 14-5 in Venezuela.

In the American League Philadelphia walloped Boston 16-6, New York defeated Washington 9-3 and Detroit edged Baltimore 4-3. Baltimore fell to last place.

Cox Sparks Dodgers

Billy Cox scored the two Brooklyn runs. He walked in the third inning and moved around on a sacrifice by Russ Meyer and a single by Pee Wee Reese. In the fifth he singled, was again moved to second by Meyer and scored on a single by junior Gilliam.

The Red Sox' three game winning streak was wrecked as the lowly Philadelphia Athletics battered the Bostonians all over Fenway Park. Gus Zernial hit his 10th and 11th homers and drove in six runs. Pitcher Bob Trice joined in the fun with a home run and double in winning his fifth game.

Bob Grim, the only rookie pitcher still with the Yankees, held Washington hitless through the last five innings as he scored his fifth success. Hank Bauer had a perfect afternoon, collecting three walks, a home run and a single and driving in four runs.

The Orioles chased Ralph Branca in the eighth inning but the former Brooklyn righthander won his third straight game for the Tigers. Detroit collected 10 hits off three Baltimore pitchers including a double and a single by Branca.

Mickey Astorga Gives Only 2 Hits, Fans 11 Batters

Yankees defeated the Dodgers, 10-7, and Giants won over the Indians, 9-5, in the Town of Esopus Little League 1954 openers at Ross Park in Port Ewen.

The Dodgers put all their eggs in one basket against the Yankees but the basket wasn't big enough.

After the losers went ahead 7-0 in the second, the Yankees scored five runs in the third and two in the fourth to tie the game at 7-7. They rallied for the winning runs in the top of the sixth.

Dailey stopped the Dodgers cold after relieving Christopher in the second. The Yankees collected eight hits off Terpening and Johnson, including two by Boss. Jones cracked a double and homer for the Dodgers. Charlie Brooks tripled for Yankees. Christopher, Reinhart, Phillips slammed doubles.

Dailey struck out nine batters in his relief stint.

One Big Inning

The Giants staged a 7-run rally in the second inning against the Indians.

Mickey Astorga pitched shutout ball for four innings but relaxed under a 9-0 lead and yielded five runs in the last two rounds. He allowed only two hits, one a triple by B. Brown, walked five and fanned 11.

The Dodgers collected but five hits off Carter and Tinney, including a double by Nembhart.

A large opening day crowd attended. Supervisor Ed Eckert threw out the first ball. Floyd Patterson, professional boxer training at the Wiltwyck School, was introduced.

Ebelheiser's Single Gives NPS 6-5 Win Over Danbury

Frank "Specs" Ebelheiser of Kingston drilled a 10th inning single to give New Paltz State Teachers a 6-5 triumph over Danbury Teachers (Conn.) at New Paltz.

Don Lyons, another KHS product, also figured in the rally which came with two outs.

Lyons touched off the rally with the first of three successive singles, after Cummings and Ellman made the first two outs. Christian and Ebelheiser followed with solo raps to nail down the victory.

Siegel Wins

Manny Siegel went all the way for the Orange, yielding nine hits, walking one and fanning seven. The winners made tight hits off Lo Stocca and Bielinski. The former started and was ejected for disputing a decision during New Paltz's four-run rally in the sixth.

Carr's double for Danbury was the only extra base blow of the contest. Lyons cracked two singles for the Ulsterites.

May Be in Custody

Bonn, Germany, June 2 (AP)—The wife left behind by Soviet Secret Police Capt. Nikolai Khokhlov when he deserted to the West last February has disappeared in Moscow, western officials said here today. Diplomatic reports just received from the Soviet capital said Mrs. Yanina Khokhlov vanished without trace from her three-room apartment several weeks ago and apparently is in secret police custody. Khokhlov, who backed down an a Red assignment to kill a Russian resistance leader in Frankfurt, had appealed to the free world in news conferences and radio broadcasts since to help save his family from what he said were certain Soviet reprisals, possibly death.

City to Get . . .

Albert Kurdt and Harry Rigby, Jr.

All citizens of Ulster county are invited to witness the deed presentation. There will be no charge or collection for the function, nor is a formal invitation required for admission.

The deed which conveyed the land on which the city of Kingston was founded from the Indians to Thomas Chambers was purchased from the New York State Historical Society. Contributions towards its purchase were received not only from citizens of Kingston but also from many of the towns and villages of the county at large. In addition to individual contributions, many organizations such as the Ulster County Historical Society, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, made donations.

Was on Exhibition Here

The Chambers' Deed, conveying all the land from Newburgh to Catskill and west into the town of Rochester from the natives to Chambers, was on loan exhibition in Kingston during the Tercentennial celebration in 1952. It was at this time that Mrs. Hutton conceived the idea of returning the document to Kingston.

Handed down in the family of Thomas Chambers for generations, the deed passed into the possession of a dealer in the early part of the century. A public spirited citizen purchased it and presented it to the New York State Hospital Association.

For many years, the document remained in the files of the association, until after the Tercentennial celebration when overtures were made by the local group seeking to have the deed returned to its "home."

Appraisals were made, and experts placed a value of $3,000 on the document, stating that it was one of the most significant colonial Indian documents in existence and that it was unique in that its authenticity had been continuously verified for more than 300 years.

Prized Document

Offers greatly in excess of the appraised value had been made by a private collector and by a university, but the State Historical Association has a policy of selling no item owned by it except to a citizens' group that will agree to make the item available to public exhibition, and then only in a region where the item has local significance.

The association agreed to sell the Chambers' deed to a local citizens' committee for $1,000. This sum, plus sufficient additional to pay for appraisal and, to purchase an exhibition case, was raised early this year, with the fund getting a head start from surplus appropriated by Kingston's 300th Anniversary, Inc., the group that administered the 1952 celebration.

Woman Goes to Jail

Garden City, N. Y., June 2 (AP)—A dentist's wife, who drove onto a sidewalk here last March and injured three children on her way home from a cocktail party, was sentenced to 90 days in jail and fined $200 last night for driving after her license had been revoked by drunken driving. The defendant, Mrs. Agnes Andrews, 49 of Garden City, was taken to the county jail at Mineola. Village Police Justice George C. Wildermuth, who imposed sentence, called her action "flagrant and shocking."

Two Boys Suffocate

New London, Conn., June 2 (AP)—Julian Drew, a part-time junkman, picked up an old refrigerator in a dump yesterday and put it in his backyard where he planned to break it up. But before he got to the task, he and his wife were called away. When they returned home six hours later, Mrs. Drew opened the refrigerator door. Inside she found the bodies of Larry Murphy, 3, and Paul Murphy, 4. A medical examiner said the two boys, cousins, climbed into the refrigerator at play while the Drews were gone. The boys suffocated.

Stove Gets Hot

Oakland, Calif. (AP)—A pot-bellied stove around which stevedores ate their lunches was stolen from a pier shed. The stove was cold when it was stolen. Now it's hot.

May Be in Custody

Bonn, Germany, June 2 (AP)—The wife left behind by Soviet Secret Police Capt. Nikolai Khokhlov when he deserted to the West last February has disappeared in Moscow, western officials said here today. Diplomatic reports just received from the Soviet capital said Mrs. Yanina Khokhlov vanished without trace from her three-room apartment several weeks ago and apparently is in secret police custody. Khokhlov, who backed down an a Red assignment to kill a Russian resistance leader in Frankfurt, had appealed to the free world in news conferences and radio broadcasts since to help save his family from what he said were certain Soviet reprisals, possibly death.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

City to Get . . .

Albert Kurdt and Harry Rigby, Jr.

All citizens of Ulster county are invited to witness the deed presentation. There will be no charge or collection for the function, nor is a formal invitation required for admission.

The deed which conveyed the land on which the city of Kingston was founded from the Indians to Thomas Chambers was purchased from the New York State Historical Society. Contributions towards its purchase were received not only from citizens of Kingston but also from many of the towns and villages of the county at large. In addition to individual contributions, many organizations such as the Ulster County Historical Society, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, made donations.

Was on Exhibition Here

The Chambers' Deed, conveying all the land from Newburgh to Catskill and west into the town of Rochester from the natives to Chambers, was on loan exhibition in Kingston during the Tercentennial celebration in 1952. It was at this time that Mrs. Hutton conceived the idea of returning the document to Kingston.

Handed down in the family of Thomas Chambers for generations, the deed passed into the possession of a dealer in the early part of the century. A public spirited citizen purchased it and presented it to the New York State Hospital Association.

For many years, the document remained in the files of the association, until after the Tercentennial celebration when overtures were made by the local group seeking to have the deed returned to its "home."

Appraisals were made, and experts placed a value of $3,000 on the document, stating that it was one of the most significant colonial Indian documents in existence and that it was unique in that its authenticity had been continuously verified for more than 300 years.

Prized Document

Offers greatly in excess of the appraised value had been made by a private collector and by a university, but the State Historical Association has a policy of selling no item owned by it except to a citizens' group that will agree to make the item available to public exhibition, and then only in a region where the item has local significance.

The association agreed to sell the Chambers' deed to a local citizens' committee for $1,000. This sum, plus sufficient additional to pay for appraisal and, to purchase an exhibition case, was raised early this year, with the fund getting a head start from surplus appropriated by Kingston's 300th Anniversary, Inc., the group that administered the 1952 celebration.

Woman Goes to Jail

Garden City, N. Y., June 2 (AP)—A dentist's wife, who drove onto a sidewalk here last March and injured three children on her way home from a cocktail party, was sentenced to 90 days in jail and fined $200 last night for driving after her license had been revoked by drunken driving. The defendant, Mrs. Agnes Andrews, 49 of Garden City, was taken to the county jail at Mineola. Village Police Justice George C. Wildermuth, who imposed sentence, called her action "flagrant and shocking."

Two Boys Suffocate

New London, Conn., June 2 (AP)—Julian Drew, a part-time junkman, picked up an old refrigerator in a dump yesterday and put it in his backyard where he planned to break it up. But before he got to the task, he and his wife were called away. When they returned home six hours later, Mrs. Drew opened the refrigerator door. Inside she found the bodies of Larry Murphy, 3, and Paul Murphy, 4. A medical examiner said the two boys, cousins, climbed into the refrigerator at play while the Drews were gone. The boys suffocated.

Stove Gets Hot

Oakland, Calif. (AP)—A pot-bellied stove around which stevedores ate their lunches was stolen from a pier shed. The stove was cold when it was stolen. Now it's hot.

More Stormy Weather Is Forecast for East

(By The Associated Press)

More stormy and wet weather was the outlook for wide areas from the Rockies to the east coast today.

Tornadoes struck in sections of western Texas and western Pennsylvania last night, killing one and injuring 11.

Strong gusty winds blew over sections of the plains states today, with gusts of 55 miles per hour reported at Pierre, S. D.

The storm which swept the midwest yesterday was located in the eastern Great Lakes region this morning. Cooler air pushing eastward north of the storm center brought showers and thunderstorms throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York state.

Up to six inches of snow fell at points along the Contential Divide yesterday as a Pacific cold front moved across Montana. Snow fell in Great Falls, Butte, Lewiston and Belgrade. But in Colorado readings in the 80s and 90 at La Junta were reported.

Hard to Get . . .

fighters in home-made uniforms would re-fight the battle, with perhaps 25,000 watching.

Baldwyn is a town of about 1,600 in scantily populated northeast Mississippi. The battle site is nearby.

An old log church, long ago decayed and fallen apart, is being duplicated. It served as a hospital after the battle, staffed by southern womanhood.

The Yankees lost about 2,200 killed, wounded or captured in the battle, Gentry said. Forrest lost about 500 killed or wounded.

"After the battle," Gentry said, "the women are coming on the field dressed in their costumes. They will help the wounded (of both sides) into the church and tend their wounds. That's the way it happened."

The battle had no appreciable effect on the war. Vicksburg had fallen the year before cutting the Confederacy in two. Sherman was pushing through Georgia at the time, making war hell and knocking on Atlanta's doors.

But the battle lifted morale a little and give Mississippi a fading taste of victory.

Girl Found . . .

water, two other daughters and a son.

Question Neighbors

A score of detectives were assigned to the case. They immediately began questioning neighbors.

Other police searched for the knife that had penetrated the young girl's chest and other parts of her body. They canvassed local laundries and tailor shops for anyone with bloodied garments.

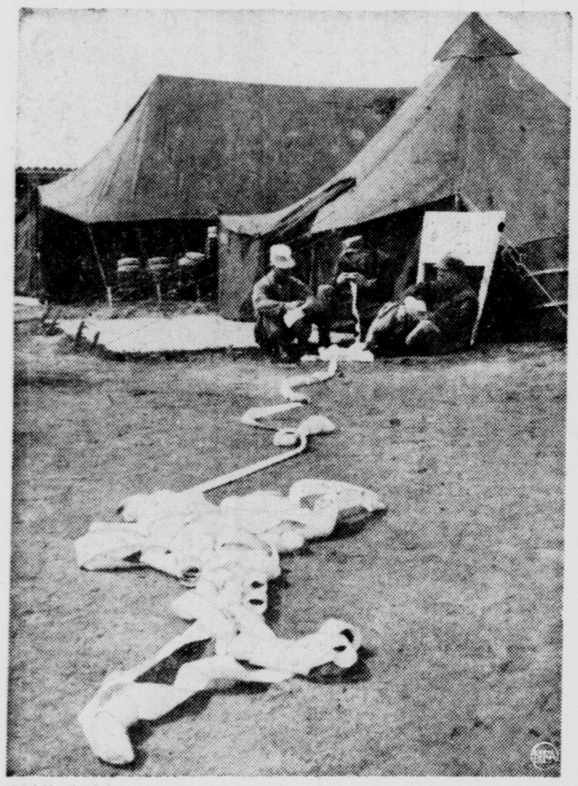

The crew of a police mobile lab sought fingerprints in the hallway and on Dorothy's books and lunch box.

Yale Club Will Meet

Two prominent Yale representatives will address the Yale Club of the Mid-Hudson Valley at its meeting Thursday at 7 p. m. at Governor Clinton Hotel, it was announced by John D. Schoonmaker, Jr., Yale class of 1924, president of the club. The speakers are Beekman C. Cannon, associate professor of the history of music, and Waldo C. M. Johnston, executive secretary of the Alumi Board.

IT STILL RUNS—Frank Hasenfang and his wife, Lillian, have put their 25-year-old automobile to use as a tractor. Hasenfang uses a 30-year-old plow hooked to the car to turn the soil on their acre of land at Worth, Ill.

MAIL CALL—Pvt. Daniel A. Reiss, stationed with the U. S. Army in Bamberg, Germany, hasn't had a minute to spare since his 21st birthday gift arrived from his fiancee, Louise Gordon, of Brooklyn, N. Y. It's a 3200-foot letter and so far Dan's managed to read through the first quarter mile of the letter. It took Louise about one month to type the greeting.

Patrolman Held

New York, June 2 (AP)—A 33-year-old patrolman was arrested early today on a charge of molesting a young woman at gunpoint in a deserted subway stairway near city hall. Police identified the patrolman as Francis J. Conway, of 479 Givington avenue Brooklyn. Conway, a traffc officer, was suspended from duty. Conway denied the charge. The complainant, Joan Wheeler, 19-year-old clerk, of 1954 54th street, Brooklyn, alleged that the patrolman molested her at 9:35 p. m. last May 25 on the stairway of the B.M.T. subway station at Nassau and Beekman streets. The patrolman came up behind her, she said, pointed his gun at her and ordered her to be quiet.

Forecast Is Given

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The Weather Bureau says temperatures are expected to be lower than normal in June over the northern half of the nation from the Great Lakes westward. Above normal temperatures are predicted in the east, south and far southwest. The bureau's 30-day outlook yesterday added: "Between the Appalachians and the Continental Divide precipitation is expected to exceed normal except for near normal amounts in the gulf states. Subnormal amounts are indicated in the southwest and in the south Atlantic states. Elsewhere near normal rains are in prospect."

McCarthy Insists

between Cohn and Schine and find out if Cohn has some "hold" over McCarthy, said he had "no new information whatever to offer."

"I have no access to FBI files and no top secret docments at my disposal," the Vermont senator said. "Everything I said came from the source that Will Rogers used to refer to when he said, 'All I know is what I read in the newspapers.'"

McCarthy replied in an interview the subcommittee ought to find out whether Flanders' statements about him and Cohn, his chief subcommittee counsel, were "manufactured out of thin air."

"I'm sick of these people who make charges and then say they have nothing to back it up," he declared. He had termed Flanders' speech "vicious and dishonest."

President Eisenhower said his administration has an impressive list of accomplishments in fighting communism and subversion.

Bars Questions

The President made the statement at his news conference after virtually barring questions on the sharp controversy between members of his administration and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

One newsman, nevertheless, asked the President whether he feels that McCarthy is hurting the administration's legislative program.

A look of sharp annoyance came over the President's face and after a pause he turned away from the questioner and snapped out that he was ready for the next question.

In ruling out questions about the McCarthy-administration controversy, the President said that from now on he has just one objective—to get his legislative program enacted.

Bases Bombed

Hanoi, Indochina, June 2 (AP)—The French high command announced today massive bombing by the French air force had destroyed a "string of bases" of the Communist-led Vietminh 12 miles east of Hanoi. A command spokesman said 30 fighters and 20 bombers blew up huge arms depots and rebel caches of war materiel in villages they had occupied near the vital highway and railway linking Hanoi with the seaport of Haiphong. The high command spokesman described the situation elsewhere in the Red river delta as "calm."

Cole's Charondee To Meet British Boat

Alderman Charles J. Cole's homemade power boat Charondee has a special sail scheduled for it soon after it is launched in the Rondout creek.

The trip was planned in about a minute flat Tuesday night when the alderman of the 13th, and Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly got to talking about the trip over the Atlantic of the 61-foot converted lifeboat now on its way from Kingston, England to this city.

Kelly proposed that the Charondee meet the British craft Aries, which is due here about June 17 or 19, down the river at about Esopus light, and Cole went along with that suggestion as a fitting first trip for the Charondee.

Opinion Is . . .

Nichols that allegations by the majority were old hat—charges which the commission had thrown out seven years ago.

They asked, on Oppenheimer's behalf, that the customary review by the commission's personnel security review board be waived. Instead, they asked the commission itself to take the case "under immediate consideration."

They asked permission to file a written brief by Monday and to argue at some later date before the commission, which must make the final decision.

Jay LeFevre . . .

a former trustee of the village of New Paltz.

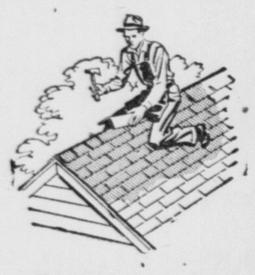

LeFevre is a veteran of World War 1, having served as a lieutenant in the field artillery. He is a member of the American Legion and Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He is married and has a daughter and three sons.

One newsman, nevertheless, asked the President whether he feels that McCarthy is hurting the administration's legislative program.

A look of sharp annoyance came over the President's face and after a pause he turned away from the questioner and snapped out that he was ready for the next question.

In ruling out questions about the McCarthy-administration controversy, the President said that from now on he has just one objective—to get his legislative program enacted.

Bases Bombed

Hanoi, Indochina, June 2 (AP)—The French high command announced today massive bombing by the French air force had destroyed a "string of bases" of the Communist-led Vietminh 12 miles east of Hanoi. A command spokesman said 30 fighters and 20 bombers blew up huge arms depots and rebel caches of war materiel in villages they had occupied near the vital highway and railway linking Hanoi with the seaport of Haiphong. The high command spokesman described the situation elsewhere in the Red river delta as "calm."

Cole's Charondee To Meet British Boat

Alderman Charles J. Cole's homemade power boat Charondee has a special sail scheduled for it soon after it is launched in the Rondout creek.

The trip was planned in about a minute flat Tuesday night when the alderman of the 13th, and Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly got to talking about the trip over the Atlantic of the 61-foot converted lifeboat now on its way from Kingston, England to this city.

Kelly proposed that the Charondee meet the British craft Aries, which is due here about June 17 or 19, down the river at about Esopus light, and Cole went along with that suggestion as a fitting first trip for the Charondee.

Opinion Is . . .

Nichols that allegations by the majority were old hat—charges which the commission had thrown out seven years ago.

They asked, on Oppenheimer's behalf, that the customary review by the commission's personnel security review board be waived. Instead, they asked the commission itself to take the case "under immediate consideration."

They asked permission to file a written brief by Monday and to argue at some later date before the commission, which must make the final decision.

The answers to everyday insurance problems* By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: If you have an auto accident and buy insurance after the accident but on the same date, will the policy cover the accident?

ANSWER: Certainly not! Any auto insurance must actually be in force before an accident to be effective. Hindsight is no good in a case of this kind.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.
